Priest Had Answered Call to Give Murderer's Father Blessed Sacrament

The Prisoner at Police Station

SERGT. PHILIP DWYER, JOHN J. KING, JR., AND OFFICER WM. LISTON

MURDERER HELD WITHOUT BAIL

The murderer was arraigned before Judge Enright at 1.15 o'clock this afternoon on two counts, the first charging murder in connection with the death of Fr. Gilbride and the second, charging shooting with intent to kill in connection with the wounding of Capt. Petrie.

King was ordered committed without bail to the county jail at East Cambridge until Saturday, June 14.

After hearing the murder charge read, Clerk Trull asked, "Are you guilty or not guilty?"

"Guilty of what?" King asked. "Murder? I'm guilty of execution."

"I will not take a plea of guilty," said Judge Enright. "Enter a plea of not guilty."

To the charge of assault with intent to kill, King pleaded not guilty, saying, "I did it in self defense."

Judge Enright then ordered the prisoner committed to the county jail in East Cambridge on the murder charge until June 14, when he will appear before the local court. The second charge also was continued until the same date.

TWO ALARM FIRE IN TANNER ST.

Property and Equipment
Loss of Several Thousand Dollars Caused

Paper Plant of Benjamin Greenblatt Burned — Another Building Damaged

Fire this forenoon in the waste paper plant of Benjamin Greenblatt in Tanner street, spread to an unoccupied building next door owned by Israel Greenberg and caused property loss to the extent of several thousand dollars. Two alarms were sent in from Box 42, Lincoln and Tanner streets, the first coming shortly after 11 a. m.

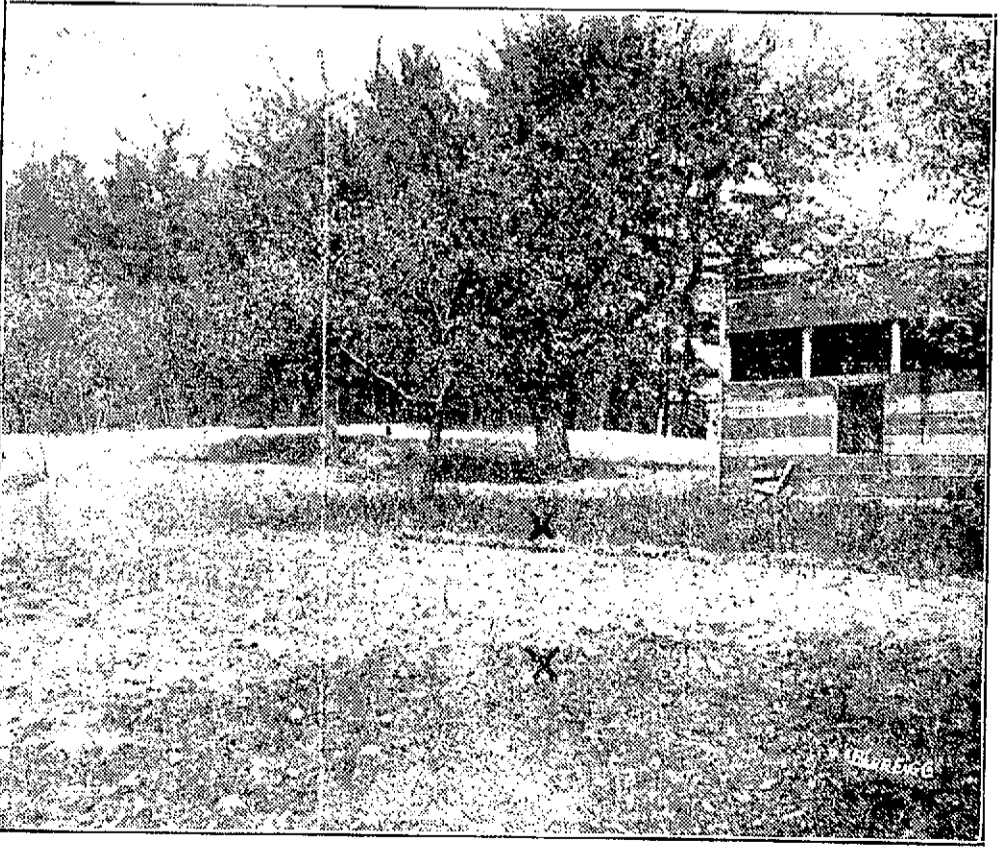

The Greenblatt building was well stocked with waste paper, some in bales and the fire spread rapidly throughout the frame structure and was burning fiercely when the first apparatus arrived. Four men were working in the front of the building when flames were discovered in the middle section on the ground floor. Because of the nature of the contents, a dense smoke followed the flames and firemen were forced to keep water pouring on the fire for nearly two hours to draw it out.

Capt. Joseph d'Amour of Truck 1 was cut on one hand by flying glass but returned to his company after first aid treatment.

None of the workers in the building could give any idea of the fire's origin. It seemed to break out suddenly and flames, rather than smoke, were first seen. One of the employees ran to the engine house in Lincoln street and later sent in a bell alarm from Box 42.

CEMETERY COMMISSION

William H. Righby Re-elected Chairman—No Action on Wage Increase

The cemetery commission met yesterday, sending the newly appointed member, Murdock MacKinnon, and re-electing William H. Righby as chairman. Monthly bills amounting to $1267.95 were approved. An attempt to bring from the table the petition for an increase in wages for cemetery workers was lost for want of a second. The board ordered an abandoned shack in the rear of the Edison cemetery torn down. The chairman reported the selection of Belmont as the site for the new cemetery extension purposes, adding a bill is now being prepared for submission to the legislature which if passed will empower the city to make the desired seizure.

TO OFFER M. HERRIOT THE PREMIERSHIP

PARIS, June 5 (By the Associated Press).—President Millerand was expected today to summon Edouard Herriot, leader for the radical party and outstanding figure in the new majority of the left for the purpose of offering him the premiership, vacated by M. Poincaré.

M. Millerand, in accordance with custom, was to confer on the subject this morning with the presidents of the senate and chamber, but it was a foregone conclusion that they would recommend M. Herriot to him as the one best fitted for the task of forming the new government.

M. Herriot's attitude, however, was in some doubt, in view of the strong sentiment in the ranks of the left against M. Millerand's continuance in the presidency. The radical leader has kept his own counsel, regarding the course he would take, and opinion was divided this morning, but with most of the political experts predicting he would decline the premiership unless M. Millerand in turn gave him a message to parliament announcing his resignation from the post of chief executive.

8 IN 11 HOUR BILL FOR FOR PLACES ON OLYMPIC SWIMMING TEAM

BOSTON, June 5.—The fight for the 8-in-11 hour bill for street railway employees, which had been vigorously waged for 70 days, came to an end yesterday, when it was voted to refer it to a newly appointed conference committee, where it is expected to die. Not in years has such a battle for legislation been waged. After a series of conferences, substitutions, etc., the curtain scored a sweeping victory in the house, when the original bill was passed by a vote of 137 to 62. It then went back to the senate, with yesterday's action the outcome.

Some time ago the senate substituted for a committee report of "next annual session" the bill cutting the street car men's hours from nine in 11 to eight in 11. Soon after the senate reversed itself and substituted for this bill a resolution calling for an investigation by the department of public utilities into the desirability of this legislation; whether it would greatly increase the burden on street railway companies, and whether it would result in an increase in fares. Under this resolve, as amended, the department was to report to the next legislature.

Although this resolve passed the senate when it reached the house, Rep. George E. Keegan of Lawrence, the petitioner, succeeded in substituting for it his bill. The bill was passed to be engrossed in the house and Tuesday was read into the senate.

And here another fight started. Senator Charles B. Frothingham of Lynn, who framed the resolve, moved that his resolve be substituted for the bill which the house had accepted. Senator John Halliwell, of New Bedford, opposed substitution of the resolve and spoke in favor of the bill as adopted by the house.

"The purpose of the resolve is to kill the bill," said Senator Halliwell. "No more investigation is needed. The facts are known. Why aren't uniformed men entitled to the same hours as mechanics in the workshops of the street railway companies? These work only eight hours. The purpose of this bill is to establish an eight-hour day for the uniformed men. If an emergency arises which makes it necessary that they work longer at any particular time, nothing in the bill prevents it."

Senator Charles H. Hartshorn, of Gardner, termed the bill a "vicious proposition," and moved that it be referred to the next annual session. Senator Richard Gibbons, of Lawrence, opposed this motion and also that for substitution of the resolve which he said had previously been killed by a two to one vote and which he claimed would be killed again. Senator Gibbons pleaded that street railway employees be given the same consideration as other workmen.

"Voting for the resolve is side-stepping the issue," said Senator Walter E. McLean, of Fall River, "and the issue is whether or not the eight-hour day is universal. If it is, then street car employees are entitled to its benefits. Let no senator duck the issue by voting for the resolve."

On a rising vote the bill adopted by the house was killed, and the senate substituted therefor Senator Frothingham's resolve by a vote of 19 to 9. On a roll call, vote the resolve was adopted 19 to 13.

When the resolve reached the house, however, this branch refused to concur with the senate, and sent it back to the senate. There Senator Frothingham moved that the senate insist on its action, and asked for a committee on conference.

Senator Halliwell said that he felt the house justified in its action refusing to accept the resolve.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—One hundred and twenty-five of the nation's greatest swimmers are entered in the final contests for places on the United States Olympic swimming team to be held here this afternoon. Three events are on the program, the 100 meter free-style, for men; 1500 meters free style for men and the men's diving contest. Swimmers finishing in the first and second places in the events will be chosen for the team.

Women swimmers who will be selected for the Olympic team will hold their tryouts in New York later in the week.

Among some of the more prominent swimmers entered in the finale here are Johnny Weissmuller, Norman Ross, Duke Kahanamoku, Sam Kahanamoku and Harold "Stubby" Keuger.

"The question should be decided in an out-and-out manner. If it is to be defeated, let it be done honorably," he said. Despite the opposition, Senator Frothingham's motion was carried and President Frank G. Allen appointed Senators Frothingham, Abbott H. Rice, of Newton, and William A. O'Hearn, of North Adams as the committee on conference. When knowledge of this action reached the house, Speaker R. B. Loring Young of Weston appointed representatives Samuel H. Warner, of Northham, Thomas C. Crowther of Fall River and George E. Keegan of Lawrence as the house committee on conference.

Of these members, all three representatives are for the bill, and also Senator O'Hearn, but since a majority of each committee must agree upon a single measure, the two opposing senators, constituting a majority of their committee, create a deadlock. So that it is highly probable that these two committees on conference will not be able to come together on either bill or the resolve for an investigation and that consequently both will expire.

Reciprocal Insurance Plan
The reciprocal insurance squabble ended yesterday with the house and senate finally out through a resolve for an investigation of the whole matter by a special recess committee of the legislature.

This is a mode of insurance whereby department stores and other large mercantile concerns combine and mutually insure themselves against fire and sprinkler damage. This particular bill has caused the biggest fight of the year on Beacon Hill by reason of the strength and determination of the opposing factions.

"DEADLY POWER OF DEATH RAY" FAILS
LOSTON, June 5.—The "deadly power of the death ray" failed to materialize in the recent governmental tests; the house of commons was told last evening by William Lamb, under-secretary of the air ministry. During the tests he said, one of the ministry's experts placed himself in the path of the ray only ten yards distant from the point of emanation. If the inventor's claim had been borne out, the expert ought to have disappeared, but the under-secretary was pleased to report that he was doing very nicely and when last seen, showed no sign of having suffered.

NO TROUBLE IN RUMANIA

Formal Denial of Sensational Rumors Regarding Internal Situation
BUCHAREST, June 5.—Formal denial of sensational rumors regarding the internal situation in Rumania, is made in a semi-official statement which attributes the dissemination of the stories to persons seeking to affect the stock market.

One of the rumors was that General Averesco, former premier, was marching on Bucharest at the head of 50,000 peasants. It is explained that General Averesco merely presided at the annual congress of his party outside Bucharest, and that the meeting was entirely peaceable.

The semi-official statement also denies "exaggerated reports" concerning the loss of life in the recent arsenal explosion near the capital.

Regarding the general situation, it says: "The most perfect order prevails throughout Rumania."

"The next selection"

by The Veteran Motorist

In one way, at least, we motorists have it all over the radio fans. They have to wait for their "next selection"—pluck it out of the air, as it were, and then perhaps not be satisfied.

But all that we motorists have to do is to tell Joe, the garage man, to "fill her up with Socony Motor Oil." And, boy, then tune her up, and listen in to the sweet music of the motor.

After all, any motor car is almost human in its appreciation of the proper lubrication and the proper fuel. It resents poor gasoline, and it hates poor lubrication.

Probably you are using Socony Motor Oil today—I have been using it ever since it first came out—but in case you are not, make it your next selection. It is economical in price. It is sold everywhere; it never fails in the endless task of fighting friction, and prolonging the life of the motor. Don't accept a substitute.

For transmissions and differentials, use Socony Gear Compound or Socony Gear Oil. See the Socony Chart.

PLAN TO BOOST NEW ENGLAND INDUSTRIES

Thirty-three members of the New England Association of Commercial Executives, of which Secretary-Managing George E. Wells, of Lowell, chairman of commerce, is secretary this year, called Tuesday at Boston chamber of commerce headquarters, convening to discuss what subjects dealing with programs aiming to increase the manufacture and distribution of familiar New England products.

Representatives of numerous business and executive organizations, as well as important Massachusetts industries, were in attendance at the conference. The National Textile Manufacturers' association was represented by Mr. A. C. Mosser, whose information on the textile situation in New England today is first-hand.

Suggestions were made at the commercial executives' conference favoring the immediate promotion of a comprehensive exposition, to be held in Boston during a continuous period of about two weeks, with exhibits of New England industries and products displayed for the public at large to see and study.

It was believed to be the proper thing to do in properly advertising New England products and existing mere business, but until all the New England states show favorable sentiment the proposition as briefly outlined at the commercial executives' rally the exposition plan will not be pushed.

Some of the executives in attendance believed that even if Massachusetts should stand alone behind the trade-boasting campaign and proposed exposition, it could still be a New England exposition and very properly, but this idea as broached, did not meet with much district representative favor. While support of the exposition proposed has been excellent in many parts of the Bay State, no replies or offers of support have come from any one of the other New England states.

HOW TO PAY JUNE

2. If at the time you filed your return you paid one-half of the amount of tax reported, no payment will be due until Sept. 15.

3. If at the time you filed your return you paid only one-fourth of the amount of tax reported, you must pay on or before June 15 one-half of the amount paid by you when you filed your return.

4. The main point to be borne in mind is that one-half of the tax due from you this year must have been paid on or before June 15.

"AFTER SIX DAYS"

What Director Manager Samuel Pagan of The Strand had in mind when he looked "After Six Days," featuring Moses and the Ten Commandments for four days, starting Monday, was a super-photo drama that not only had superior entertainment power, but also educational attributes of an unusual nature. This monster film, which cost into the millions and was five years in the making is recognized the country over as a screen offering of unique merit. It shows in resplendent episodes the creation of the world, the fall of man in the garden of Eden, Abel's death at the hands of his brother, the building of Noah's Ark and the deluge, the building of the tower of Babel and the scattering of the tribes, the destruction of the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, the wisdom and justice of King Solomon and King Solomon's romance with the shalomee woman, as well as other well-known events in Biblical history—events that are generally known to all, both young and old.

The visualization of these events into a real distribution has been recognized everywhere as one of the most tremendous and successful screen adaptations ever attempted since the beginning of motion pictures. The settings of this offering defy adequate description. Battles, pestilence, pagants, movements of whole peoples, tilt and pass on the screen like frail shadows. Children will understand better the Bible after seeing this truly instructive picture. Older folk will recall their Sunday school lessons, and will turn once again to the pages of that immortal book. And every one will find thrills, romance and entertainment. One of New York's best known critics says of this film: "It is seldom that I utter the opinion that we have a duty to perform—that of going to the theatre, but it seems to me that after seeing 'After Six Days,' we have a duty, and that is seeing this offering. This movie will give every man, woman and child a better understanding of the old Testament and I am convinced that it has religious attributes. I wish it were possible that every boy and girl of Sunday school age could see it. I believe that it is the duty of every father and mother to take their children to see this film, and if a Sunday school teacher wants to give her pupils an inspirational treat, then she should take or urge them all to see it."

"After Six Days" has lifted these various scenes from the Bible and brought them to life with admirable success. There are thousands of people in the east, and hundreds of people in the west, who are flocking to see it, and remember that it is here for four days only, starting with Sunday's matinee.

One of these amusing "Our Gang" comedy creations is also on the bill.

That Real
Home Made
FlavorBread Like Mother
Used to Make

WHO could ever forget the way mother's bread smelled when she took it from the oven of the old wood stove, years ago when we were youngsters. Remember how we rushed in, breathless with anticipation, our appetites making it next to impossible for us to wait until the fresh loaves were ready to cut? Those, indeed, were "the good old days!"

Old Home Potato Bread takes you back in memory to those happy times. It's a loaf so much like mother's own that even she would find difficulty in telling the difference. And it's full of old-fashioned goodness and wholesomeness, too—a loaf that tastes, looks and even smells like real home-made bread.

We leave it to you—isn't Old Home just about the tastiest bread you've eaten in many a day? If you liked the bread you used to get at home, you'll surely agree that it is. We've tried to make it just like mother's own, and folks tell us we have succeeded. You can find out for yourself by ordering it from your grocer—in the extra long, wrapped loaf.

SENATOR WALSH LIKES HIS FEW EXTRA WINKS

By N.E.A. Service
WASHINGTON, June 4.—An early riser is one of the things that Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana is not.

The fact that he must have his forty winks in the morning necessitates his motorizing to his daily duties at the capitol, instead of walking, as would be his natural preference.

Walsh drives his own car and parks it outside the senatorial sanctum while he carries on his work. Motorizing is a matter of business rather than of pleasure.

You seldom see the senator's face outside the capitol between the hours of nine-thirty in the morning and five in the afternoon.

While other senators are dining at noon, Walsh likely is munching a piece of fruit. What he eats is of little concern, says he.

When the senate adjourns for the day Walsh hops into his car again and drives home. The machine is parked for the day and then he starts on foot, for the famous Rock Creek Park and the Washington zoo.

A two-hour stroll before supper is the usual thing, and often another walk follows in the evening.

Senator Walsh plays golf almost every Sunday. He likes the walking part of it best.

Theatres have little appeal—they

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

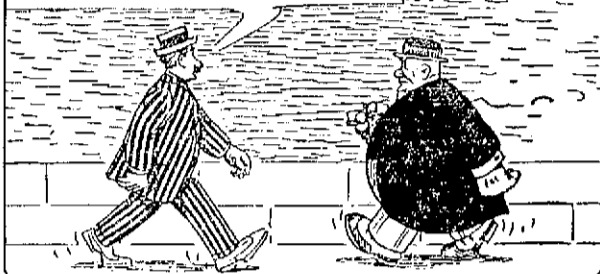

A few cents buy a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet got; how comfortable your shoes feel—Ad.

Interfere with the eight hours sleep he insists upon getting every night.

When the senate session is over Walsh will head for Lake McDonald in Glacier National Park, Montana. That's his pet loafing spot.

TO FORM NEW FRENCH CABINET

Pres. Millerand Summons Paul Painleve to Elysee Palace for Consultation

Millerand Determined To Remain in Office Under Any Circumstances

PARIS, June 4.—(By the Associated Press)—President Millerand summoned Paul Painleve, former premier and leader of the right wing of the chamber of deputies, to the Elysee palace today for consultation in regard to the formation of a new cabinet to succeed the outgoing cabinet headed by Raymond Dandieu.

Millerand Refuses to Yield
PARIS, June 4.—(By the Associated Press)—President Millerand made known to his friends today that he was determined to remain in office under any circumstances, unless there should be a majority vote in both the senate and chamber of deputies asking him to retire. Furthermore, this vote must be in open session with the vote of each senator and deputy recorded.

The president is described by those closest to him as being convinced from his inquiries that the majority of the senate is for him, and will refuse to associate itself with the action of the majority in the chamber. The president is by nature combative and, although he does not cling to the presidency, has told his friends that he will not retire simply because the majority in one house is opposed to him.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY AWARDS 3319 DEGREES

NEW YORK, June 4.—Columbia university awarded degrees to 3319 students and honored men distinguished in education, literature, journalism and politics at its 170th commencement today. The graduates exceed by 475 those of last year.

Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, heads the list of recipients of honorary degrees. He received the degree of doctor of laws together with Victor F. Lawson, editor and publisher of the Chicago Daily News; Melville E. Stone, former general manager and now counselor, The Associated Press; and Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times.

The honorary degree of doctor of letters was conferred upon Booth Tarkington, novelist; Dr. Robert Hughes, editor of Scribner's magazine, now acting as exchange professor at the University of Michigan; James Truslow Adams, historian and author of "Revolutions New England"; and the Rev. Dr. Herbert Bill, A.B., Columbia, 25, founder and headmaster of Kent School, Kent, Conn.

Acting as university orator, Prof. Edwin R. A. Seligman, in discussing the value of imagination and enthusiasm as the essential ingredients of success and paid tribute to the recipients of the honorary titles for their loyalty to the conspicuous ends of social effort and human striving.

President Nicholas Murray Butler discussed character building in his commencement address, laying emphasis on "freedom of choice" as the most useful element in the development of a good character. Dr. Butler attacked the growing tendency to shift the responsibility for character building from the individual to the community, a movement which would compel morality at the expense of excellence. Real freedom, he said, was the happy medium "between tyranny on one hand and license on the other."

RICKARD CHANGES PLAN

To Promote But One Heavy-weight Battle This Year—Firro's Action the Cause

NEW YORK, June 4.—Tex Rickard announced today he had abandoned plans to promote two big heavy-weight battles this year, and would concentrate his efforts either upon a match between Luis Firpo and Harry Wills, or a title contest between Wills and Jack Dempsey.

The promoter had planned to make a Wills-Firpo match an elimination race for a championship bout and a Firpo-Dempsey fight, but he had cancelled this scheme because of Firpo's unwillingness to fight before Aug. 20.

Such a date, he pointed out, would make it impossible to hold a title match early in September, between the inner and Dempsey, while he prefers not to risk chances with weather conditions and conflict with other sporting events by arranging for such a bout later than Labor day.

As a result, Rickard declared he would abandon a Dempsey match for this year. He puts on the Wills-Firpo contest but he has not yet determined which to stage. He has signed Wills for both fights and has agreements with Firpo as well as Dempsey's manager, Jack Kearns, who is in New York to close any arrangement the promoter makes.

Rickard declared today he was ready to sign with Rickard for fights with either Firpo or Wills, preferably the latter, and denied that the champion would prevent him from defending his title this year. Rickard indicated that he would stage whichever contest he arranged at Bayley's, Thirty Acres, about Labor day.

CITY SEALER SPEAKER AT AD CLUB MEETING

Warren P. Riordan, city sealer of weights and measures, was the speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Advertising club and gave an interesting talk on the work of his department.

The meeting was held in Y. M. C. A. hall at noon. Following luncheon, a short business meeting was held, after which President Thomas R. Atkinson, in the chair.

Edwin J. Mellon, Boy Scout executive, was accepted as a member and asked the club's endorsement of the Flag day celebration sponsored by the Scouts for June 14. This endorsement was voted.

Chairman William Bruce of the outline committee reported progress and Frank Carroll suggested the summer meetings be held at Alhambra in August during the months of July and August.

Mr. Riordan was introduced by Pres. Atkinson and traced the history of weights and measures since their inception. After outlining the history of weights and measures, Mr. Riordan told of the work of his department.

"The department," he said, "is the only department in the city not governed by city ordinance. It comes under state jurisdiction."

The present method of checking a lot for sealing weights and measures was attacked by Mr. Riordan. "It is not fair," he said, "for it benefits the seller and not the buyer who pays a few any more than those who suffer the loss of the protection."

Mr. Riordan briefly summarized his department's work in protecting the public from inaccurate weights and measures and also explained several duties not generally known, namely, the enforcement of the baker's and peddler's law and the "horse peddler's" law.

At the conclusion of his address, Mr. Riordan was given a vote of thanks for his splendid talk.

Addresses Graduating Class at Naval Academy on "Real Leadership"

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 4.—Leadership not dependent upon gold, silver or gold lace, or commissions written upon parchment, but upon the personal attributes of officers, was urged today by Secretary Wilbur of the navy in his address to the graduating class at the naval academy.

"Real leadership is based upon respect for the leader," the secretary said, "and such leadership can only be achieved by possession of powers worthy of respect. Professional ability and accomplishments are the best foundation for permanent leadership but there is an altogether different basis of leadership which finds its source in the heart rather than in the head."

The secretary pointed out to the young officers that to them was to be committed in some part the destinies of the 86,000 enlisted men of the navy.

"Unless your rule over them be tempered by firmness, justice, sympathy and courtesy," he said, "their services in many cases may be lost to the navy. Remember especially that the expense of a subordinate, especially if he is an enlisted man, is thus incapable of retaliation, is unmanly and fatal to one's standing as an officer."

AMUSEMENT NOTES

(By the Theatre's Own Press Agents)

"THE COVERED WAGON"

All great American dramas of semi-historical origin seem to hit the times just at the right period and no fuller illustration of this can be shown than the phenomenal success of "The Covered Wagon" which comes to the R. F. Keith Theatre for a week's engagement starting Monday, June 6. Tickets went on sale at the theatre box office today.

This story is the pictorialization of the great Saturday Evening Post serial of the same title by Emerson. Though which is now in its sixth edition as a book and which was made for Famous Players-Lasky under the able direction of James Cruze.

Emerson though as everyone familiar with his works knows was one of the foremost writers of the west and he said just before his death that he had reached the height of his dreams when he witnessed the screen success of his greatest endeavor. The timeliness of his theme in this particular is that it made its appearance when the country was saturated with war clouds and the radicalism which came in the backwash of the war. Contrasted with that ill-timed movement of aggression, the story of how these men and women of great courage and high resolution set forth upon their perilous trip of 2000 miles across the uncharted plains and desert is inspiring. In the covered wagons drawn by oxen and rolling off the average of twelve miles a day they laughed and sang, and loved and suffered and fought to build what is now the great western heart of this greatest of all countries. Its appeal is the personal one of courage to do and hearts to serve that an unknown land might be opened up and the rich streams of wealth come pouring forth each year in crops that reach to the ends of the world. There is romance and adventure in every forward move of the winding trains as they look onward and onward toward the end of the trail and the golden west which was no more rainbow or chimera but something that will live forever in our minds and hearts. The production has been successfully presented in all the principal cities of the country and in London and Paris.

THE STRAND

When some one says "The Moulin Rouge" your thoughts instantly revert to the gay and scintillating Parisian cafe, which is dear to all those who would leave dull care behind. It does not seem possible that a tiny could bloom in the exotic atmosphere of this restaurant, but Graham Cutts' soul-stirring photodrama, "Woman to Woman," which is to be presented at The Strand for three days beginning with matinee today, proves that innate purity will thrive regardless of its environment. The stellar role in this powerful production is taken by Betty Compson, who proves once more that she is capable as well as beautiful. As Delphine, the exquisite flower-like little French dancer, she exudes a freshness and child-like charm which is untouched by her sordid surroundings. Then love, enchanting and de-

DRUGGED! INDICAN Shows Why Constipated People Feel That Way

ASK your doctor about INDICAN. He will tell you it is a substance looked for in examining his patients thoroughly. If he finds it in you—it means that the poisons of constipation are seeping through your blood into every muscle and every joint. This is what does the damage. It robs you of your pep, it poisons your optimism and good spirit—it pales your face and puts blemishes there—it gives you headaches—causes indigestion. No wonder you feel drugged when constipated.

You can get only temporary relief from most laxatives. But Carter's Little Liver Pills, when taken, not only "physic" the stomach, liver and intestines quickly, but also drive the INDICAN away.

Make This Test: Have an analysis made of your specimen, and if the doctor reports the presence of INDICAN, or if you can "feel" how poisoned you are—immediately start taking Carter's Little Liver Pills as prescribed by him, or according to directions. Now have another test made and see how the INDICAN disappears. See how your complexion brightens and clears, your tongue is sweet and clean, you can eat like a kid again, in most cases.

Important: Carter's Little Liver Pills, used for 67 years by millions of people all over the world, is a purely vegetable preparation and contains no drugs of any nature. It therefore acts in a natural way and is not habit forming. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory.

Same man after taking Carter's Little Liver Pills for only a few days—note the clean, normal specimen—NO MORE ANY TRACE OF INDICAN.

OUT OUR WAY

WASH FUNK IS GETTING SO HE KNOWS WHEN A SAFETY DEVICE ISN'T A SAFETY DEVICE.

J.R. WILLIAMS

vacating, wings its way into her life. On the eve of their marriage, her fiancé (played by Olive Brink) is mysteriously called away. A blow on the head turns him to the faithful little girl who has sacrificed all for him. Later Fate brings them together and while the man's heart is swayed with the wrong he has unwittingly done, Dorothy is married to another girl. Dorothy's one thought is to protect the future of their son. The solving of this vital problem imparts a rare justice in a plot which has no dull moments in it.

"Twining Twining," the pulsating photodrama by Grace Sanderson Michie, author of many big successes, will be the second feature. It's a delightful story, convincingly enacted and beautifully presented. Constance and Irene Hich head an exceptionally fine cast, whose other members are Tully Marshall, Jackie Saunders, Russell Simpson, James Gordon and others. Together with a good comedy and Weekly Issue, as well as musical numbers on The Strand organ, the offering should share well the bestowal of approbation from the fans.

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE

Van Arman's Fashion Plate Minstrels are drawing excellent audiences to the R. F. Keith theatre, this week. Twelve daily the big first part with the half circle of 20 voices, and the big orchestra, give plenty of good music, and incidentally furnish dancing and plenty of comedy. The olio with the show is exceptionally good, and the dancing of Scott & Keefe and impersonations of Olin Landick are the high spots of it. There is no advance in prices for this big show. "The Hill Billy," which is a Jack Pickford picture, is the added attraction.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE

Flashiness that bubbles over with puncher has arrived in company with Harold Lloyd's latest feature, "The Girl Shy," playing all this week at the Merrimack Square theatre.

Lloyd has hitherto given to the screen many humorous novelties in his varied characterizations, but in "The Girl Shy" he promises to outdo his previous laugh efforts with his portrayal of a very bashful small town boy, who made a secret study of girls, and the more he studied them the more he feared them. It is a really novel role, and is full of fun, because Lloyd has by this time achieved a reputation for never disappointing his many followers.

Owing to the demand for seats at performances of "The Girl Shy" so far this week the management has made arrangements to give four performances daily for the remainder of the week. There is an excellent surrounding program.

RIALTO THEATRE
In the first Tom Mix nine reel special, "Soft Boiled," which opens at the Rialto theatre today, the popular western star, famous the world over for his hard-riding, straight shooting and weathered managements, abandons all this for horned-rimmed spectacles, a check suit and a job as a shoe clerk. Unable to fit a dainty pair of slippers on a tiny, silk-covered foot, he recoils that he always got a shoe on a horse by hammering it. But his method isn't so good in this case. With his eyes on ankles, and his mind decidedly not on his work, he unconsciously ties the shoe of his elite customer to that of an angular cold-eyed woman in the adjoining seat. The outcome is neither graceful nor happy for Tom Mix, but it sets the audience in an uproar. Erstwhile wearer of stoves, Mix finds himself fondling a small bare handkerchief, inhaling over and over and its intoxicating perfume. That's not the worst of it, however. The comedy, the latest chapter of Ruth Roland in "Haunted Valley," and a new Fox News complete the program.

EMPIRE STYLE
Nightgowns on the empire style, are very attractive in pink voile bordered with lace and tied with blue ribbons.

DR. CALDWELL'S SYRUP PEPsin
Is just what you need

This Will Make Digestion Easy

WHAT the dyspeptic needs is not soda and charcoal and breath perfumes but a medicine that will help his bowels to move regularly, for dyspepsia and constipation are allied. If you will take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin systematically as the directions on the package call for you will soon digest your food properly and pass it out normally, and heartburn, belching, dizziness, nervousness and bloating will vanish. In time you can dispense with all medicines as Syrup Pepsin will have exercised the intestinal and stomach muscles so they act for themselves. Mr. Lewis F. Schultz of Reasnor, Ia., Mrs. Victor Knodler of 5625 Bank St., Louisville, Ky., and hosts of others will verify this.

World Acclaims Success

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the prescription of a well-known physician of that name who practiced successfully for 47 years. It has been on the market thirty years and is today the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. ## AT THE CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

The advantages of the Baraca-Philathea movement in young people's circles in Protestant churches were extolled in high terms last evening by James A. Boyle of Medford, principal speaker at a hall of the Progressive Young Men's class of the school in Calvary Baptist church. There was a business meeting and dinner in the vestry, young women of the church assisted in serving the viands, which included strawberry shortcake in abundance.

Guests of the evening's social included Rev. Wallace G. Sampson, pastor of the church; James A. Boyle, who is president of the Massachusetts Association of Baraca clubs; Charles L. Thurston and Kenneth Stuart, church deacons. Assembly singing was in order before the speechmaking. Norman D. Farnum, leading and Edward J. Ditts presiding at the piano, President Glen Holcomb directed the business meeting, when reports of past month's religious and social activities were read and approved. It was voted to hold a church lawn party, June 18. Members are going to Camp Nabunasset on July 3 for an outing.

Mr. Boyle's talk was devoted to Baraca-Philathea movements. He described work now performed in larger cities such as Philadelphia. Some Baraca clubs, he said, had memberships of 150 or more, young men studying the bible and also faithfully attending Sunday schools. He believed in more Baraca clubs.

"AL" STILL MUST RE- TURN TO "MA"

By N.E.A. Service.

ALBANY, N. Y., June 5.—Governor "Al" Smith likes to walk to work. It is the one form of recreation he is sure of getting these days.

For the stress of state business and the approach of the democratic convention have cut in on his other pastimes.

GOVERNOR SMITH REPORTS HE WILL BE LATE FOR DINNER.

favorite diversions—golfing, playing with the animals in his children's zoo and watching the movies.

The showing of these pictures takes place in the large sitting room of the executive mansion two or three times a week. Among the audience is the Smith family, the mansion employees and young Walter Smith's friends. They never miss a lunch. Neither does the governor when he gets the chance to be there.

For "Al" Smith loves a wholesome lunch and gives many with his inimitable stories.

He gets up in the morning with a song on his lips, shaves himself, has a honey breakfast, stops a while to play with his children's pet in the back-yard menagerie, and goes down to the capitol the same time as the clerks. A morning's work at his desk and he goes home for luncheon, taking his secretary with him usually.

A brisk walk back to the office, a clean-up of the day's work, and he takes a few holes of golf. If his time permits. But the end of the legislature left so many things hanging fire, that this sport has been pushed up, although the governor still takes to it just as soon as he gets away into the country or down the Jersey coast for a little vacation.

Whenever the pressure of business becomes too great, he always calls up "Ma" Smith on the phone and tells her he will be late. For although her husband may be governor, she doesn't like to keep dinner waiting for him any more than she did when he was in the trucking business in New York.

KILLED ON CROSSING

One Man Instantly Killed and Two Others Injured When Train Hits Auto

CHICAGO, June 5.—One man was instantly killed and two others injured, one critically, when a large automobile truck containing four men was struck by a South bound Boston & Maine passenger train at a temporary grade crossing here today. Fog obscured the view and the truck, when discovered by Engineer Frank Harvey of Springfield, was partly on the track.

Joseph Gilbert of Chicago, chauffeur of the truck, was killed. Fred King of Holyoke, suffered possibly fatal injuries and Paul Rodery, minor hurt. Joseph Spinks jumped to safety. All were employed by the La France Construction of Holyoke.

The collision completely demolished the truck, throwing the body 50 feet.

SENATOR RALSTON NOT A CANDIDATE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—Declaring there "is something about the greatness of this exalted position that admonishes me against wanting to undertake the execution of its grave and solemn duties," United States Senator Samuel M. Ralston today urged the Indiana democratic state convention not to consider him a candidate for the presidency.

"Great as this honor is, however, I would not speak truthfully to you should I refrain from saying that I have never aspired to the presidency of this country," he said. "If there be those who doubt my sincerity in what I am saying, let me lay additional emphasis on my state of mind by declaring that this convention will please me most by allowing the delegates from Indiana to the New York convention to go unrepresented."

The senator said the democratic party should choose as its candidate for the presidency, a man who is "human through and through; who knows America and who wants this country to do its part in establishing peace—continuous peace—among the nations of the earth."

MACADAMIZING ROAD
IN WEST BILLERICA

Billerica town officials are endeavoring to have the macadamizing job on Nashua road in West Billerica completed this year, if funds can be secured to finish the work contemplated. Experts' opinions differ as to what it would cost. Former Highway Surveyor

John W. Bestwick, Assistant Engineer, Boucher of the state highway department, and Edgar P. Sellow were present at a meeting of the selectmen held yesterday afternoon in town hall, the conference covering all features of the road proposition. The selectmen decided to present the matter to the finance committee.

It may cost $10,000 or more to complete the macadamizing of Nashua road—a balance of about 5600 feet as laid out in 1923. The sum of $30,000 has already been spent by the town, county and state on macadamizing.

Engineer F. D. Sabin of the department of public works was present at the selection's meeting and told the officials that he considered the cost of the final stretch of roadway would be too high to come under the estimation named—$10,000. Grading was costly, he said, and on that construction problen alone, no estimate in cost could be made in advance.

ALLEGED PLOTTERS ACCOUNTED

BERLIN, June 5.—The two men accused of plotting the assassination of General Von Seeckt, the German army commander, were acquitted today. The defendants, Thormann and Grandell, were acquitted on the ground that the plot was only discussed with two other men, who revealed it to the police and that no attempt was made to carry it out.

WOMEN'S CLUBS TO
THRESH OUT PROBLEMS

BY JACK JUNGMEYER
N.E.A. Service Writer
HOLLYWOOD, June 4.—Sentiment on motion picture censorship among America's influential women will probably be crystallized as a result of the biennial convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Los Angeles June 2-12.

Wide differences of opinion is scheduled to be threshed out for recommendation at the very rates of Hollywood. And whatever view prevails will doubtless find reflection in political action in a number of states.

If this controversy, long an issue among the federated women, is to reach official conclusion, it would mean, on the one hand, a serious threat to the proper foundation of society.

In 1922 at the Chautauque convention the plan had been to start an active censorship campaign. It was dropped when Will Hays, representing the producers, assured the women that they had nothing to fear but bigger and better movies.

Now the pros and cons seem again to have reached the point where decisive official action, one way or the other, is imminent.

That at least would insure the women a royal time in Hollywood by the defenders of cinematic freedom.

Everything But Tea Dumped Into Boston Harbor Now

THEY BOUGHT THE WHOLE STATES OF MAINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE, VERMONT, CONNECTICUT, RHODE ISLAND AND MASSACHUSETTS FROM THE INDIANS FOR THREE BOXES OF AXLE GREASE, A SET OF GOLF STICKS AND A BATH TUB.

BY WILL CRESSY

BOSTON, Mass., June 4.—Boston, the Hub of the Universe. A hub is part of a wheel. Bostonians all have them. The first white man to set foot in Boston was a Swedish heavyweight, Lief Eriksson, in the year 1001. Lief was just sort of skulldugging around on a summer vacation and did not realize what an opportunity he was missing to establish one of Boston's first families, for unfortunately he left no descendants to speak of.

Two years later his brother came over but he liked it so much less that he went down to Fall River and died there.

But it was not until 166—something or other, that Boston really got a start. Then a lot of disappointed Methodists over in England got sore at the deal they were getting from the K. of C. and the K. K. K. and the Quakers and the Shakers, and so they decided to go over to America where they could do others as others had been doing unto them.

So they bought a Dutch excursion boat, and as it was November, they called it The Mayflower. And they loaded it with ancestors and antique furniture and started over to be pilgrims and get their names in the papers and sell off the furniture.

While the exact dimensions of this ship have been mislaid, statisticians have figured it out, taking for a basis the amount of furniture brought over.

MR. JAMES MACFARLAN (Expressman)

In the Mayflower that it was a trifle over three miles long, half a mile wide and 1500 feet deep. They bought the whole states of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Connecticut, Rhode Island and Massachusetts from the Indians for three boxes of axle grease, a set of golf sticks and a bath tub.

As the Indians demanded cash on delivery they called the place Cape Cod.

Many distinguished people have come from around Boston. Some of them were mostly distinguished for that fact.

Benjamin Butler, who sued the Boston Transcript for damages because it said he looked like William J. Bryan, came from Boston.

Lydia Pinkham, who discovered she was Woman's Friend, at a dollar each, came from Lynn.

Louisa M. Burham, who wrote Little Women, and Joe Mitchell Chapel, who wrote Little Men in Congress, were Massachusetts folks.

ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE NO UNION CARDS

Rarely do "inside" news items concerning the activities of railroad men's fraternal or class instruction organizations reach the columns of public prints, yet, all over New England today, particularly in districts of the so-called "our shops," there are railroad men's organizations that have no union cards, no dues, no particular financial expense costs attached. These organizations are today proving highly attractive and profitable in many ways to loyal men on the Boston & Maine Railroad, New York, New Haven & Hartford and Maine Central pay-rolls.

The popular name for some of the railroad men's volunteer meeting organizations, now successfully operating at such important points as Billerica and Nashua, N. H., is "foremen's association."

The Sun is informed that meetings are held once a month by these individuals, district-specified and managed organization. They have been in process of promotion for many weeks past, as a matter of fact, and have thus far been eminently well attended and highly interesting from many view points to better relationships between corporation and car workers and also serving as instruction institutions of real value.

N. A. Campbell of the New York Air Brake Company, gave an instructive talk on car braking appliances with special reference to maintenance and repairs, at the April meetings of the Concord car shop workers and the Billerica-Terminal Foremen's association. The same subject was covered by R. C. Couzens and P. A. Tuthill, air brake instructors, at the joint meeting of the East Deerfield Springs field and Middleburyville foremen in the East Deerfield "Y."

There was a good attendance at all three points, including a number of representatives of the Mechanical Employers' association at Billerica, W. O. Foreman, assistant mechanical superintendent, was also in attendance at the Billerica-Terminal meetings.

The Concord foremen's association held an interesting special meeting on May 2, with a lecture by Supt. G. A. Wyman on "Valve Motion."

Arrangements are being made to have George C. Ketchum, supervisor of signals on the Boston & Maine railroad, give soon at Billerica car shops, his historical lecture, "Development of the Automatic Signal on the Boston & Maine," which has already been delivered in Concord. The lecture there was held at the railroad "Y" auditorium and a replica, not only of railroad signals, but of controlling mechanical appliances, was shown in connection with the Ketchum lecture.

SAYS SHE WAS ALWAYS TIRED

Sleep Was Not Refreshing Because Her Blood Was Thin and Nerves Exhausted

To be tired after unusual exertion is natural but to be tired all the time is a symptom of debility. Sleep and rest should restore the strength. When they do not it is a sign that the blood is thin and is not furnishing the nerves the nourishment they need. This is an anemic condition and is corrected by building up the blood.

Mrs. Albert Beaudoin, of No. 20 Wentworth street, Biddford, Me., was anemic from the time she was a young girl. When she grew to womanhood the bloodless condition became most distressing. "I was thin, had not a bit of color and was tired all the time," she says. "My sleep was not refreshing and I would be as tired in the morning as when I went to bed. I had no ambition. At times I had nervous spells when I would shake all over. After those spells I would be exhausted. I was also subject to sick headaches, had terrible pain in the back, shortness of breath and fluttering of the heart."

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and gave them a trial. In a few days I knew they were helping me. The trembling sensations were gone and I was growing stronger. I continued their use and they brought back my color and strength. I shall always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I know they helped me and I have faith in them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at sixty cents per box, postpaid. Write today for a copy of the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."

LAST EVENING'S FIRE ALARMS

A conflagration was visualized in the minds of many last evening when box 314, at Middlesex street and Broadway, was sounded twice within an hour. The first alarm, at 9:25 o'clock, was for fire in a pile of old ties in the street railway company yard in Middlesex street. The second alarm, almost an hour later, was for a blazing freight car near the John C. Meyer thread mill. The car was empty but was badly damaged before the fire was extinguished.

At 8:35 o'clock last evening a still alarm was sounded for a fire in an automobile in Mammoth road.

Ready for any game active little brains suggest—eager to explore the cunning resources of the new doll house—glad to read over and over the adventures of Mother Goose to tiny listeners.

You have kept your energy because you have been spared the hardest work of washday—the hard constant rubbing.

ONLY a new kind of soap and a really modern soap could do this for you—and this is just what Rinso is—the first laundry soap that meets the needs of the modern housewife.

Everything about Rinso is modern—even its form is new—fine, creamy-white granules that dissolve completely in hot water. You get a rich soapy solution with more cleansing power than bar soap—and so much quicker and easier to use.

Your clothes are spotless, and you have helped prolong its wearing qualities—you have saved time, strength and labor.

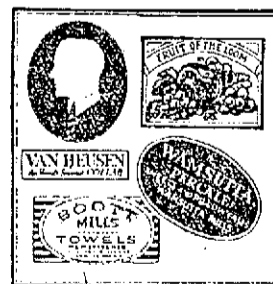

Rinso takes the place of any other laundry soaps or soap you may now be using. It is a complete soap in itself—it does the whole wash whatever your washing methods may be. You need no other soap with it.

Use the rich Rinso solution in your tubs, boiler, washing-machine. The water gets soapy right through—an even rich soapiness that goes into every fibre of your clothes and gently soaks dirt out. Even ground-in dirt needs only a light rubbing.

And then the rinsing is so easy and so thorough—no bits of soap left to ruin clothes under the iron—no soil left to make them look dingy—and, of course, no harmful rubbing at any time.

EVERYWHERE the progressive American woman is using this labor-saving soap. Already more than a million packages are used every week.

Who are the greatest athletes?

Recently in discussing various places of college athletics, I put that question to Major Cavanaugh, famous football coach at Boston college.

For years Cavanaugh, a Dartmouth graduate, coached the football team of that institution with great success. Boston college wanted Cavanaugh to go to it on the football map. Six years ago, it was little more than a day school. Now it is known the country over, because of the prowess of its football teams coached by Cavanaugh.

A year after taking charge at Boston college, Cavanaugh set the football world agog by twice beating Great Yale eleven.

Centre college won grid fame by defeating Harvard one year, yet little Boston college beat Yale on successive years.

These two wins made Cavanaugh a much-sought-after coach. Football mentors do possess sentiment, despite the belief of some college professors, who insist their only objective is a fat salary.

He turned down a half dozen offers for twice the money he is now getting at Boston college. Kuntz Bookie recently did a similar thing to remain at Notre Dame.

Getting back to who are the greatest athletes.

The Irish race has always rated high in turning out great athletes. The Germans have been very successful. England has had its share and the Yankees are always feared. Major Cavanaugh's reply to my query was food for thought.

"The Poles are the greatest athletes," the colleges are getting today," said the major.

"No doubt a lot of Irish will want to kill me for that statement, but it's the truth," he continued.

"The Poles are immune to pain, their courage is remarkable, and they are unspoiled."

"It will take a couple of generations before battery goes to their heads and breaks down their athletic value."

"I only need to call attention to the fact that the star of the Harvard basketball team is a Pole, I could offer no better example of the truth than the Pole is coming into his own as a college star."

Then Major Cavanaugh went on to relate how his star tackle of last season, Koslowski, a Pole, played the greater part of the year with both shoulder blades broken, a special brace making it possible.

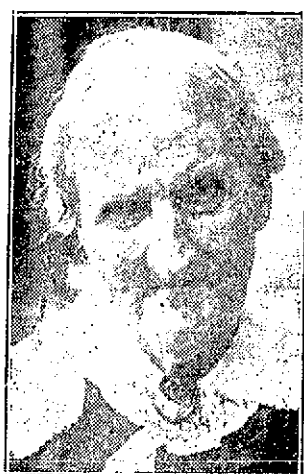

"In order to impress upon me that he was able to play he would start trying to make holes in the brick wall of the gymnasium," explained Cavanaugh. "You simply can't deny that kind of spirit."

GRAND OLD LADY PASSES THE CENTURY MARK

With scores of friends gathered to honor her on the 102nd birthday, Mrs. Lucy Cook, for 31 years a resident at the Old Ladies' Home in Fletcher st., is today entertaining old and new acquaintances with tender congratulations and good wishes.

Mrs. Cook was born in Canada.

MRS. LUCY COOK

June 5, 1822. She married John L. Cook, an Englishman, and for several years previous to her entrance at the home, resided in this city, with her husband four children, all of whom are dead.

Mrs. Cook, still the proud possessor of all her faculties is enjoying general good health. Some of her work, past-work especially, is beautiful and it is with pride that Mrs. Cook calls attention to her handiwork. All her work is accomplished without the aid of spectacles, and although over a century old, Mrs. Cook claims that her eyesight is normal.

Last evening a group of young people of the salvation Army gathered at the home to honor Mrs. Cook, who sat through the entertainment with her guests. She was presented an enormous bouquet of roses, carnations and sweet peas by the young ladies. A fine program of instrumental numbers and readings was enjoyed by the ladies of the home.

Miss Buchan, a personal friend of Mrs. Cook, today presented her a beautiful birthday cake with the following inscription, Mrs. Lucy Cook, 1822-1924.

Mrs. Cook was also the recipient of numerous gifts of money from her many friends as well as scores of cards and letters of congratulation.

"FOOTRACE OF CENTURY"

Carpentier, in Full Retreat,<sup>2</sup>

Hit Gibbons Once and Got

$75,000 For It

By JOE WILLIAMS

CHICAGO, June 4.—George Carpentier's first money grabbing expedition in this country was entitled "The Battle of the Century."

His last one, and it certainly ought to be his last one—will go down in the carefully edited records as "The Footrace of the Century."

From start to finish the Frenchman took it on the run in his little fast-paced, jaunty, Tommy Gibbons at Michigan City, pausing only at discreet and safely spaced intervals to swing a wild, impatient, and in the general direction of the St. Paul Irishman.

It was the most complete and painstaking retreat in the history of pugilism and, contrasted with the noble stand put forth by another Frenchman, Eugene Criqui, against Johnny Dundee last fall, the frantic scurryings of Carpentier were nothing short of disgraceful.

An Easy $75,000 For Carp

The game Criqui gave the fans a run for their money. For that matter so did Carpentier, but it was a run that would easily have matched the high voltage strides of a Paddock or a Murchison.

Carpentier did absolutely nothing to earn his $75,000 guarantee except to pose gracefully for the photographers and to drop dramatically on what he said was a turned ankle in the ninth round.

The ankle incident, by the way, is his alibi and will be pressed energetically to save the face of the proposed match with Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion.

"I would have knocked out Gibbons if my ankle hadn't collapsed," Carpentier told newspapermen after the fight.

This crack merits a low, rumbling guffaw.

Only Landed One Punch

The Frenchman only hit Gibbons one solid punch, a straight right, harder to the jaw in the middle of the fourth round. It was a carbon copy of the punch he landed in the second round of the Dempsey fight, except that it did not send Gibbons reeling, nor did it as much as daze him.

The Carpentier right, along with the other Carpentier fighting qualities, is gone.

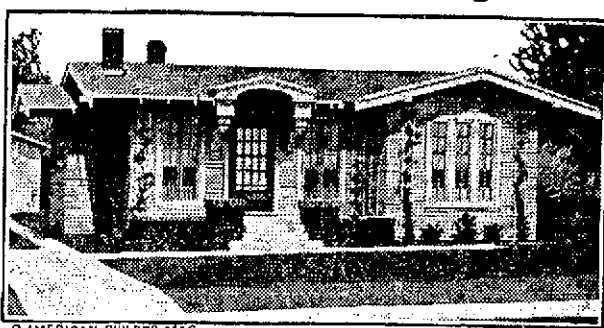

Had Carpentier stood up and fought in his old-time aggressive manner we have no doubt but that Gibbons would have stopped him in one of the early rounds. It is not easy to get a full shot at a man's vitals when he is continually backing away. This was Carpentier's method of keeping a worn-out fighting mechanism functioning. One spluttered burst of aggressiveness would just about have consumed all his energy.

Gibbons None Too Alert

At that Gibbons should have scored a knockout. He had more than one chance. The Frenchman was ready to go in the third and again in the seventh. It took quite a bit of vocal lessons on the part of the parental deacons to get him to come out for the eighth round. George was perfectly agreeable to walking out and leaving the party flat on his vulgar back.

Gibbons may be criticised for not waiting consistently relentless attack. He has a queer fault of letting down in the midst of a winning rally. Time after time he had the Frenchman cornered but let him get away through indecision and super-cautiousness. These lapses will probably cost Gibbons a return match with Dempsey. If a man can't stop the derelict Carpentier of today, even in full retreat, there is little reason to believe he will annoy the champion.

COMMON SENSE

When a merchant advertises his wares in a newspaper, he does not appeal to the paper, but to its readers. He solicits the patronage of those readers whether he agrees with the policy of the paper or not.

To refrain from advertising in a paper of wide circulation simply because he does not agree with the editor on all public questions, is not using common sense. It is a form of business suicide. It has sent many short-sighted business men into bankruptcy. A dealer might as well put a sign over his store notifying all who do not think as he does that he does not want their patronage. Readers of newspaper advertisements know when and where their patronage is welcome.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 11

The clown knew that Flip belonged to Jack, so he ran right up to the little adventurer. "Pull him off! Pull him off!" shouted the clown. Jack tried to grab hold of Flip but the dog switched around and Jack went sprawling, head over heels. This brought a great laugh from the crowd.

Finally Boscoe reached out his long trunk and seized Flip. The dog was startled and let go of the clown's coat. Then the clown made a hurried retreat and Boscoe let Flip go. Instantly the dog was after the fleeing clown again. But this time Jack succeeded in grabbing hold of Flip.

A circus attendant then offered to chain Flip so the circus could go on. Flip whined at this and Jack promised that his dog would be down and let the clowns alone. Then he patted his dog's head and whispered in his ear. Flip immediately sprawled out in a pile of straw. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

by Olive Roberts Barton

HIS WIFE MET HIM AT THE DOOR

"I don't care whether it's honest or not," declared Mister Crow, "but just as soon as Farmer Jones' corn is up, I'm going to take my wife and children to the cornfield on a picnic and eat all the nice juicy young sprouts of corn I can hold. And I'm going to tell them to eat all they can hold, too. So now there!"

"Shame on you, Mister Crow," said Mister Bugs, the fairy storekeeper. "Why, pickles and porcupines! If all the birds felt the same as you do, there wouldn't be any corn left to grow up at all. And there wouldn't be any nice roasting ears next fall for the children to eat. And worst of all, there wouldn't be any corn to get dry and store away, so that the horses and cows and chickens and pigs and turkeys won't starve to death next winter."

"Humph! What do I care?" cried Mister Crow. "You sound exactly like a lecture. Mister Bugs, and I don't like lectures. And the cows and chickens and pigs and turkeys may as well starve as me."

"But you won't starve. There are lots and lots of things for you to eat, Mister Crow," said Nancy.

"You sound just like a lecture, too!" declared the big black bird. "And I didn't come in to be lectured. I came in to find out if Farmer Jones had bought his seed corn yet for planting."

"Yes, he has," snapped Mister Bugs. "And if you take any of it, I hope the scarecrow gets after you!"

"Ha, ha ha!" laughed Mister Crow, now in a very good humor because he'd found out what he came for. "The scarecrow isn't anything but some old sticks dressed up and that old gun he carries isn't worth a bean shooter. It's only a stick, too. I'm a wise old crow, I am. You can't fool me. Ha, ha, ha!"

And he hunched out of the door.

FOREIGN TRADE ECONOMIC NECES- SITY FOR THIS COUNTRY

ommendations to National Foreign Trade Council Privately Owned and Operated Merchant Marine Indispensable to Its Development and Maintenance—Rec-

BOSTON, June 5.—Foreign trade is an economic necessity for this country, and a privately owned and operated merchant marine is indispensable to its development and maintenance. It was declared in a committee report scheduled for presentation here today at the 11th annual convention of the national foreign trade council. The convention opened yesterday and will be concluded tomorrow.

The report urged wider investment of American capital in foreign countries and the further flotation of foreign loans here. It assailed the income surtaxes now in force as a discouragement to foreign trade, and the taxation of American nationals abroad upon income earned in their country of residence as "an unjustifiable and foolish handicap." The establishment of more foreign branches of American banks and reorganization of the government's foreign service, were also recommended.

Urges Foreign Loans

A neglected opportunity to act as the world's bankers lies at America's door, Franklin Remington of New York, chairman of the board of directors of the Foundation company, declared in an address presented for discussion today at the annual convention of the national foreign trade council. The floating of foreign loans for the internal development of other countries through the use of American-made products was the medium he proposed for increasing foreign trade and fostering home industry.

This way to foreign trade, Mr. Remington asserted, had been utilized by Great Britain—"The greatest nation of traders in the world, and our most formidable competitor in the expansion of our foreign markets." He quoted the British trade facilities act, which he said secured the guarantee of that government in foreign loans, the proceeds of which were to be used for the purchase of articles manufactured or produced in the United Kingdom.

"Why should not our bankers co-operate with our manufacturers," Mr. Remington asked, "and give them the same kind of support that the British and European bankers give to their nationals?"

The creation of "debtless corporations" for the purpose suggested, was outlined by Mr. Remington. These corporations, he said, would be formed by manufacturers and bankers, the former taking half the capital and assuming responsibility for the management. The management would then be explained, purchase foreign loans of the sort indicated and issue the corporation's debentures against them as security. The public would then be offered the debentures or bonds, and the manufacturers benefited would turn over a part of their profits arising out of the sale to the corporations as a commission.

"The key to foreign trade expansion, is the foreign loan," Mr. Remington said. "We have the means to obtain that key if we only will."

"Slipshod Legislation"

The removal of "slipshod legislation" and the co-ordinated effort of rail and ocean carriers are needed for the development of this country's foreign trade, T. C. Powell, vice president of the Erie railroad, declared.

"American shippers and producers need a thorough, regular and permanent service from interior points to foreign destinations," Mr. Powell said, "and they will not proceed until they are assured of it. Unless there is clear thinking by congress and government departments, we shall continue to suffer from slipshod legislation. We need the cancellation of all punitive laws against our shipping and foreign commerce, and the institution in their place of a scheme for unified action."

Mr. Powell remarked that congress was enthusiastic for our foreign trade but was "doing everything it can to obstruct it."

A report by a special committee presented earlier in the day recommended a privately owned and operated merchant marine and the extended investment of American capital abroad. The floating of foreign loans for the internal development of other countries through the use of American products was proposed by Franklin Remington of New York as "a neglected opportunity for joining with Great Britain as the world's banker."

LETTER FROM GRAVE UPSETS G. O. P. PLANS JUSTICE FEETHAM HEAD OF IRISH COMMISSION

CLEVELAND, June 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—A letter from the grave suddenly upset the plans of republican party managers for "cleaning up" the long standing factional fight in Georgia, and resulted yesterday in the seating of delegates headed by Henry Lincoln Johnson, the negro national committee man from that state, long a stormy petrel before the national conventions.

Just as most of the old-time party managers on the committee had decided that Johnson and his delegates must go to make place for those representing the faction formerly headed by J. L. Phillips, which had been recognized by officials of the national committee as representing the regular organization in the state, a letter was produced, written by President Harding to C. C. Coolidge, saying that in recognizing the Phillips faction a blunder had been made, and suggesting that action be taken to alter the situation.

Charles D. Hilles, committeeman from New York, practically forced the production of the letter. It was a committee vote, 22 to 11, to seat his delegates. A suggestion offered by Joseph R. Keating, committeeman from Indiana, to seat the contesting delegation was rejected by the same vote. Then the committee made the vote to seat Johnson's delegates unanimous, practically all of yesterday's session, was the only enlivening feature of the pre-convention period. The session was alternately noisy, bitter, pathetic and funny.

SMUGGLING IS ON THE INCREASE

MONTREAL, June 5. (By the Associated Press.)—Asserting that the smuggling of manufactured goods from the United States into Canada has been increasing steadily throughout the past year, the tariff committee of the Canadian Manufacturers' association in its annual report today recommended that the Canadian government "revise its whole campaign in dealing with these smugglers and provide a force adequate to deal with the situation, which has gone out of control."

"Although the preventive staff of the customs department has been increased along the border," the report says, "it does not appear to have been able to cope with the flood of smuggled goods which are carried into Canada by automobile, by train, by ship, and by other means. The campaign of smugglers who are conducting this traffic appear to be thoroughly organized and well equipped financially. There is little doubt that a considerable portion of the smuggled goods have been stolen."

Lee St. at Chandler's Corner, Tewksbury Centre

THE IDA M. BROWN HOME AND GARAGE AND OVER ONE-HALF ACRE OF LAND ON THE CORNER OF LEE AND CHANDLER STREETS AT CHANDLER'S CORNER IN TEWKSBURY CENTRE IS HEREBY PLEDGED TO THE HIGHEST BIDDING AT AN ABSOLUTE AND UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC AUCTION ON NEXT SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1924, AT 10 O'CLOCK P. M. The house is of the full day, June 7, 1924, with modern open plumbing, bath, hot and cold water, steam heat, hardwood floors, etc. The first floor has a reception hall, parlor, dining room, kitchen, pantry and back hall. On the second floor are three bright and airy chambers and late type bath. The entire floor is of high grade construction, has plentiful supply of closet room, and being of medium size is most economical both as to its care and maintenance. It is supplied with its own water system from a driven well on the lot, and is connected to a sewer. The lot is well wooded, and is a large open area with various kinds of small shrubs and trees. The garage is of the single car type. The lot has a most extensive frontage on both streets, thus giving to the property much added value from the standpoint of development and, more particularly, as the location is essentially one of homes also with large areas of land. The location is superb, the premises are within a biscuit toss of the electric cars, on the main state boulevard from Lowell to Boston, also within easy and comfortable walking distance of the town hall, postoffice, school and common. The offering of this splendid home at public sale is exceptional, particularly when real estate is in such public sale, and, more especially, attractive, village properties. In buying a home in such a suburb as Tewksbury, and especially in its most accessible spot, you are insured against possible depreciation, as the suburbs of the whole town are devoted to a single purpose and a more desirable suburb. Terms: $500 must be paid in cash or secured with the auctioneer just as soon as the property is struck off. Other terms at sale.

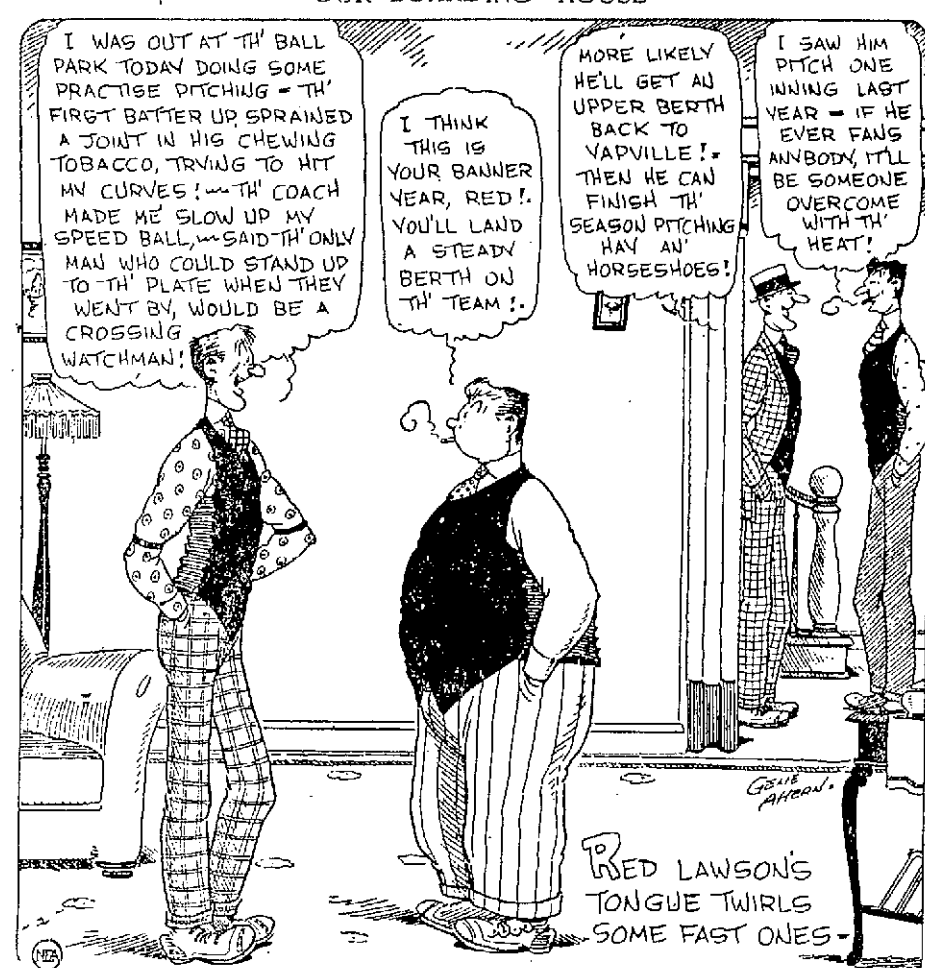

Immediatly after the sale of the above, certain household furniture, dining-room table, sideboard, 4 dining chairs, 2 arm chairs, combination gas and coal, carpets, beds and bedding, 2 ironing boards, 2 ironing boards, and numerous other pieces of personal property. ## MRS. UPTON RETIRES AUTOS IN COLLISION ON THE BOSTON ROAD

Warren, Ohio, Woman Quits
as Vice Chairman of G. O.
P. Executive Committee

CLEVELAND, Ohio, June 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—Announcement of the retirement of Mrs. Harriet Taylor Upton, of Warren, Ohio, as vice chairman of the executive committee of the Republican national committee was made here today by William M. Butler, manager of President Coolidge's pre-convention campaign.

Mrs. A. T. Hart, of Louisville, widow of the late national committeeman from Kentucky, will be recommended for the vice chairmanship. She will have charge of the work among the women in the campaign.

In making the announcement, Mr. Butler said Mrs. Upton had indicated her desire to retire from the leadership of the committee. Mr. Butler, who announced that in his judgment it would be fair and consistent that the woman representative from each state be given full membership in the national committee.

"It seems to me," he said, "that in view of their interest and willingness to participate in the affairs of the party, they should have full membership and I hope the committee on rules and the convention will bring about that result."

Announcement also was made by Mr. Butler of the names of three additional delegates, who will make addresses according to the nomination of the committee. They are Isaac McKinley of North Carolina; C. C. Carey of Oregon and Representative Martin B. Madden of Illinois.

Mr. Butler said that these with the three names announced yesterday, completed the list and added that no provision for a delegate from Massachusetts to make a second speech had been made.

These second speeches will be limited to five minutes each.

REAL ESTATE DEALERS Urged to Conduct Business With View to Mutuality of Advantage to Both Parties

WASHINGTON, June 5. The real estate men of the country were urged by President Coolidge in an address delivered today before the National Association of Real Estate Boards to conduct their business with a view to mutuality of advantage to both buyer and seller.

"The deal in which one side gets the best of it is not good business," the president said. "It does not promote more business or produce confidence in business generally. Formerly there was a curious notion that if one side in a business transaction profited the other must necessarily lose. If that were true all business would be under suspicion and wise people would stand aloof from it. The truth is that when two parties enter into a transaction by which each exchanges something which he needs less for something he needs more, both sides are benefited. That is the ideal basis of all trade and commerce, and it is the real basis of most transactions."

RUM-RUNNER UNDER FIRE EARLY TRIAL OF BOY'S SLAYERS

Three Men Including Captain of Yacht Wounded When Cutter Fired on Vessel

State Seeks to Bring Leopold and Loeb to Trial in Chicago on July 15

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 5.—Three men including the captain of the rum-laden yacht Vergen of New York, were wounded, one severely when the coast guard cutter Seminoles fired on the vessel, which attempted to escape capture eight miles southeast off Block Island last night.

The Vergen was brought in here early today in custody of the Seminoles. John Stack, 35, of Brooklyn, N. Y., a member of the crew, was removed to a hospital severely injured by an exploding shell, which tore away a portion of his right leg and removed a thumb. The Vergen's captain and another member of the crew were treated for injuries aboard the Seminoles. The captain and 13 members of the crew were held for trial before United States Commissioner Earl Matthews today. All refused to give their names.

The Vergen sailed out of Newport early yesterday taking a cargo of 1200 cases of champagne whiskey and alcohol valued at $100,000 at rum row off Montauk, according to members of the crew. When sighted by the Seminoles she was apparently headed toward the Connecticut shores. Ordered to stop by Captain Philip P. Scott of the Seminoles she proceeded full speed ahead taking a zigzag course. A blank shot failed to halt her, and four solid shots failed to hit the mark.

Two shells were then fired by the Seminoles, the first exploding over the pilot house, where the captain was at the wheel with Stack on the bridge. A second shot hit the pilot house causing injury to Stack, the captain and one other man. The shots halted the rum-laden craft and the Seminoles drew alongside. The injured were given first aid treatment, and with the captured vessel in tow and her crew aboard the Seminoles, steamed into the local harbor.

Two indictments against each youth prepared and await grand jury

CHICAGO, June 5.—Trial July 15 of Nathan Leopold, Jr., and Richard Loeb, millionaires' sons, admitted kidnapers and slayers of Robert Franks, school-boy son of Jacob Franks, millionaire real estate man, will be sought by the state. That is the earliest date consonant with Illinois procedure.

Two indictments against each youth, charging kidnapping for ransom and murder, both capital offenses, have been prepared and await the report of the grand jury expected to complete its examination of witnesses today. Arraignment is scheduled for Monday. The grand jury will continue to examine witnesses after reporting the case, however, said Robert E. Crowe, state's attorney, in order to get the testimony on oath and thereby prevent a changing of statements or intentional forgetfulness.

$1,000,000 Defense Fund

The million dollar defense fund established by the families of the youths was said to be merely preliminary. "Millions will fight millions," Samuel Eitelson, former corporation counsel, and friend of Jacob Franks, has said.

Armed guards have been set over the evidence, which includes the bloodstained clothing worn by the Franks boy, the overwrapped chest with which he was killed and remnants of an automobile robe in which his body was wrapped. After the grand jury reports, the evidence will be placed in four safety deposit boxes in different banks.

Clarence Barrow, chief of counsel for the defense, was said to be considering retention of a corps of experts, including New York and Chicago attorneys, for retention of which it is reported, an initial defense fund of $1,000,000 has been created. Pitted against them, State's Attorney Crowe, in personal charge of the case, said he would have three assistants identified with the case since the finding of the boy's body.

All witnesses who have testified before the grand jury were watched closely, Michael Hughes, detective chief said, and it was announced prosecutions for perjury would follow changed statements.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., June 5.—Incomplete returns from 11 of the 13 counties, compiled early today, give William Jennings Bryan, candidate for delegate-at-large to the democratic national convention, 11,362 votes, with indicators that he probably will poll one of the largest votes cast in Florida's primary Tuesday, W. G. McAdams, candidate for the democratic presidential nomination, had polled 21,169 votes in 35 counties. Senator Oscar W. Underwood had received 11,846.

MURDERER OF COLLINSVILLE PRIEST HELD WITHOUT BAIL

Public Appreciates
News Service
Given by Sun

Although fully mindful of the danger of self-praise, it is with a great deal of justifiable pride that The Sun contemplates the service given the Lowell public today concerning news of the frightful tragedy in Collinsville which resulted in the murder of Rev. Michael C. Gilbride.

Sensing that the news of this murder far overshadowed all other news of the day and that it was of unsurpassing local interest, all efforts were turned toward the publication of an extra edition, which was on sale in the streets just prior to 12:20 o'clock.

Hundreds and thousands of copies of the extra were sold as fast as regular newspapers and others, pressed into service, could handle them and it was with a great degree of satisfaction that The Sun realized the appreciation on the part of the public to have the news given out at such an early hour and long before any other newspaper was published.

MURDERER HELD WITHOUT BAIL

The murderer was arraigned before Judge Enright at 1:15 o'clock this afternoon on two counts, the first charging murder in connection with the death of Fr. Gilbride and the second, charging shooting with intent to kill in connection with the wounding of Capt. Petrie.

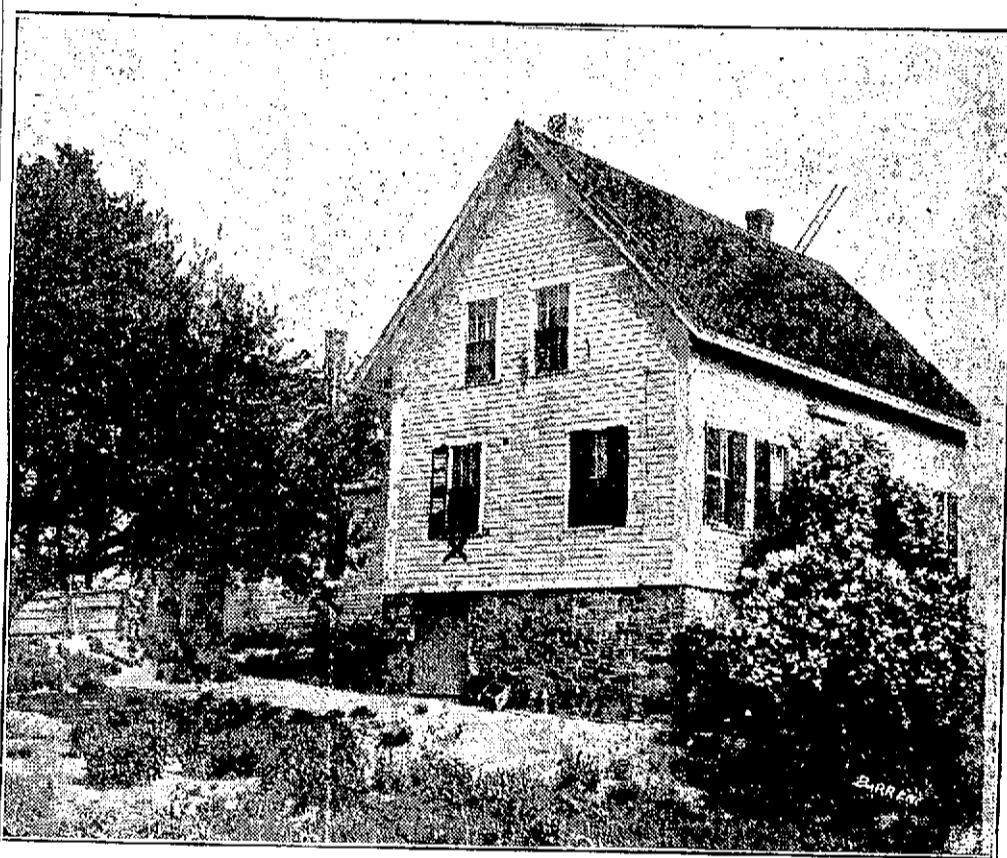

King was ordered committed without bail to the county jail at East Cambridge until Saturday, June 14.

After hearing the murder charge read, Clerk Trull asked, "Are you guilty or not guilty?" "Guilty of what?" King asked. "Murder? I'm guilty of execution."

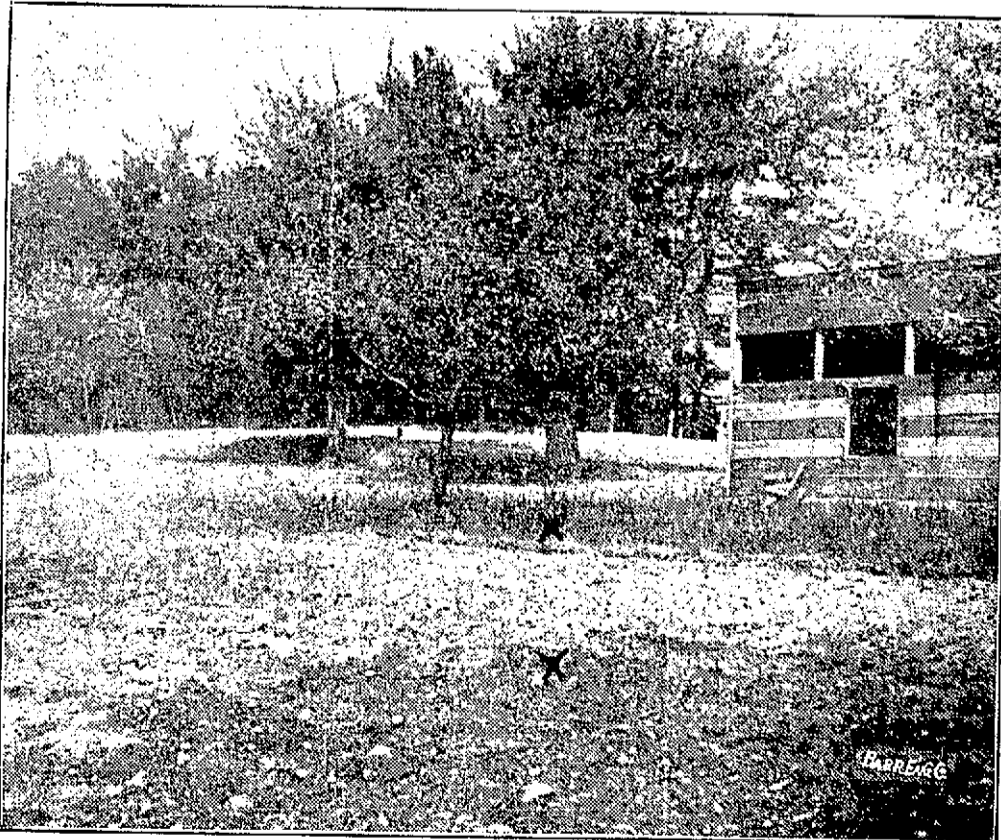

"I will not take a plea of guilty," said Judge Enright. "Enter a plea of not guilty."

To the charge of assault with intent to kill, King pleaded not guilty, saying, "I did it in self defense."

Judge Enright then ordered the prisoner committed to the county jail in East Cambridge on the murder charge until June 14, when he will appear before the local court. The second charge also was continued until the same date.

Correct Styles for Next Fall and Winter

The National Cloak, Suit and Skirt Manufacturers' association recently voted these coats the correct styles for next fall and winter.

Left—The utility coat of blocked velveteen cloth is a Peggy Paris model collared in baby fur. Two buttons and bottom trimmed patch pockets are its only trimmings.

Center—Kashanama cloth in a red-dish brown shade called penny makes an effective background for the baby fox banding of this model. Cardigan tucks and gold stitching form a band of trimming at the upper edge of the fur banding at the bottom.

Right—Black cashmere coating with a supple collar of Jap mink fur and fur banding makes this coat of very slender lines. Two rows of heavy cording break the line at the bottom.

The advisers said six followers surrendered with Sanjago and that they turned over their guns.

NEW YORK, June 5.—Still lower levels were reached in the sugar market today, owing to continued free offerings of Cuban. Raw sugar sold off to 4.77 delivered, the lowest for two years. Prices in the future market also broke to new low grounds for the movement, with contracts for next March delivery selling at 2.94.

Refiners met the decline in raws by a further cut, reducing their list prices to a basis of 4.40 for fine granulated.

CEMETERY COMMISSION

William H. Rigby Re-elected Chairman—No Action on Wage Increase

The cemetery commission met yesterday, seating the newly appointed member, Murdock MacKinnon, and re-electing William H. Rigby as chairman. Monthly bills amounting to $1267.98 were approved. An attempt to bring from the table the petition for an increase in wages for cemetery workers was lost for want of a second. The board ordered an abandoned shack in the rear of the Edison cemetery torn down. The chairman reported the selection of Chalmers disapproved of approving adjacent land over the city line for cemetery extension purposes, adding a bill is now being prepared for submission to the legislature which if passed will empower the city to make the desired seizure.

TO OFFER M. HERRIOT THE PREMIERSHIP

PARIS, June 5 (by the Associated Press).—President Millerand was expected today to summon Edouard Herriot, leader for the radical party and outstanding figure in the new majority of the left for the purpose of offering him the premiership, vacated by M. Poincaré.

M. Millerand, in accordance with custom, was to confer on the subject this morning with the presidents of the senate and chamber, but it was a foregone conclusion that they would recommend M. Herriot to him as the one best fitted for the task of forming the new government.

M. Herriot's attitude, however, was in some doubt, in view of the strong sentiment in the ranks of the left against M. Millerand's continuance in the presidency. The radical leader has kept his own counsel, regarding the course he would take, and opinion was divided this morning, but with most of the political experts predicting he would decline the premiership unless M. Millerand in turn gave him a message to parliament announcing his resignation from the post of chief executive.

8 IN 11 HOUR BILL FOR CARMEN BEATEN

BOSTON, June 5.—The fight for the 8-in-11 hour bill for street railway employees, which had been vigorously waged for 70 days, came to an end yesterday, when it was voted to refer it to a newly appointed conference committee, where it is expected to die.

Not in years has such a battle for legislation been waged. After a series of conferences, substitutions, etc., the carmen scored a sweeping victory in the house, when the original bill was passed by a vote of 157 to 62. It then went back to the senate, with yesterday's action the outcome.

Some time ago the senate substituted for a committee report of "next annual session" the bill cutting the street carmen's hours from nine to eight in 11. Soon after the senate reversed itself and substituted for this bill a resolve which for an indefinite period the department of public utilities into the desirability of this legislation, whether it would greatly increase the burden on street railway companies, and whether it would result in an increase in fares. Under this resolve, as amended, the department was to report to the next legislature.

Although the resolve passed the senate when it reached the house, Rep. George E. Keegan of Lawrence, the petitioner, succeeded in substituting for it his bill. The bill was passed to be engrossed in the house and Tuesday was read into the senate.

And here another fight started. Senator Charles H. Frothingham of Lynn, who framed the resolve, moved that his resolve be substituted for the bill which the house had accepted. Senator John Halliwell, of New Bedford, opposed substitution of the resolve and spoke in favor of the bill as adopted by the house.

The purpose of the resolve is to kill the bill," said Senator Halliwell. "No more investigation is needed. The facts are known. Why aren't uniformed men entitled to the same hours as mechanics in the workshops of the street railway companies? These work only eight hours. The purpose of this bill is to establish an eight-hour day for the uniformed men. If an emergency arises which makes it necessary that they work longer at any particular time, nothing in the bill prevents it."

Senator Charles H. Hartshorn, of Gardner, termed the bill a "vicious proposition," and moved that it be referred to the next annual session. Senator Richard Gibson, of Lawrence, opposed this motion, and also that for substitution of the resolve which he said had previously been killed by a two to one vote and which he claimed would be killed again. Senator Gibson pleaded that street railway employees be given the same consideration as other workmen.

Volting for the resolve is side-stepping the issue," said Senator Walter E. McLane, of Fall River. "And the issue is whether or not the eight-hour day is universal. If it is, then street car employees are entitled to its benefits. Let no senator duck the issue by voting for the resolve."

On a rising vote the bill adopted by the house was killed, and the senate substituted therefor Senator Frothingham's resolve by a vote of 19 to 9. On a roll call vote the resolve was adopted 19 to 12.

When the resolve reached the house, however, this branch refused to concur with the senate, and sent it back to the senate. There Senator Frothingham moved that the senate insist on its action, and asked for a committee on conference.

Senator Halliwell said that he felt the house justified in its action refusing to accept the resolve.

FOR PLACES ON OLYMPIC SWIMMING TEAM

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—One hundred and twenty-five of the nation's greatest swimmers are entered in the final contests for places on the United States Olympic swimming team to be held here this afternoon.

Three events are on the program, the 100 meter free-style, for men; 1500 meters free style for men and the men's diving contest. Swimmers finishing in the first and second places in the events will be chosen for the team.

Women swimmers who will be selected for the Olympic team will hold their tryouts in New York later in the week.

Among some of the more prominent swimmers entered in the finale here are Johnny Weissmuller, Norman Ross, Duke Kahanamoku, Sam Kahanamoku and Harold "Stubby" Kruger.

"The question should be decided in an out-and-out manner. If it is to be defeated, let it be done honorably," he said.

Despite the opposition, Senator Frothingham's motion was carried and President Frank G. Allen appointed Senators Frothingham, Abbott R. Rice, of Newton, and William A. O'Brien of North Adams as the committee on conference. When knowledge of this action reached the house, Speaker R. Loring Young of Weston appointed Representatives Samuel H. Wragg, of Needham, Thomas C. Crowther of Fall River and George E. Keegan of Lawrence as the house committee on conference.

Of these members, all three representatives are for the bill, and also Senator O'Brien, but since a majority of each committee must agree upon a single measure, the two opposing senators, constituting a minority of their committee, create a deadlock. So that it is highly probable that these two committees on conference will not be able to come together on either bill or the resolve for an investigation and that consequently both will expire.

The "recessed insurance" squabble ended yesterday when the house and senate finally put through a resolve for an investigation of the whole matter by a special recess committee of the legislature.

This is a matter of insurance whereby department stores and other large mercantile concerns combine and mutually insure themselves against fire and sprinkler damage. This particular bill has caused the bitterest fight of the year in the legislature. It is the strength and determination of the opposing factions.

"DEADLY POWER OF DEATH RAY" FAILS

LONDON, June 5.—The "deadly power of the death ray" failed to materialize in the recent governmental tests, the house of commons was told last evening by William Leach, under-secretary of the air ministry. During the test he said, one of the ministry's experts placed himself in the path of the ray only ten yards distant from the point of emanation. If the inventor's claim had been borne out, the expert ought to have disappeared, but the under-secretary was pleased to report that he was doing very nicely and when last seen, showed no sign of having suffered.

NO TROUBLE IN RUMANIA

Formal Denial of Sensational Rumors Regarding Internal Situation

BUCHAREST, June 5.—Formal denial of sensational rumors regarding the internal situation in Rumania is made in a semi-official statement which attributes the dissemination of the stories to persons seeking to affect the stock market.

One of the rumors was that General Averesco, former premier, was marching on Bucharest at the head of 50,000 peasants. It is explained that General Averesco merely presided at the annual congress of his party outside Bucharest, and that the meeting was entirely peaceable.

The semi-official statement also declares "exaggerated reports" concerning the loss of life in the recent aerial explosion near the capital.

Regarding the general situation, it says: "The most perfect order prevails throughout Rumania."

THE DEGREE OF DOCTOR OF MEDICINE

Two well-known Lowell young men will be graduated this month from the Tufts College Medical school with the degree of doctor of medicine and will at once take up hospital work as further training toward active and general practice. They are Harold A. Titus, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Titus of 225 Branch street, and Harold Ragolsky, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Ragolsky of 124 Pleasant street. Mr. Titus was graduated from Lowell high school in 1917 and Mr. Ragolsky was a member of the following class. Each has been prominently connected with activities at Tufts. Mr. Titus will serve as interne at the Lowell Corporation hospital during the coming year, while Mr. Ragolsky will similarly serve at the Carney hospital, Boston.

"The next selection"

by The Veteran Motorist

IN one way, at least, we motorists have it all over the radio fans. They have to wait for their "next selection"—pluck it out of the air, as it were, and then perhaps not be satisfied.

But all that we motorists have to do is to tell Joe, the garage man, to "fill her up with Socony Motor Oil." And, boy, then tune her up, and listen in to the sweet music of the motor.

After all, any motor car is almost human in its appreciation of the proper lubrication and the proper fuel. It resents poor gasoline, and it hates poor lubrication.

Probably you are using Socony Motor Oil today—I have been using it ever since it first came out—but in case you are not, make it your next selection. It is economical in price. It is sold everywhere; it never fails in the endless task of fighting friction, and prolonging the life of the motor. Don't accept a substitute.

For transmissions and differentials, use Socony Gear Compound or Socony Gear Oil. See the Socony Chart.

NEW AIRPLANE TO MAKE

PARIS, June 5.—Sadi LeComte, in trying out an airplane which is claimed to be the fastest ever made, having speed of 280 miles an hour, and with which he hopes to wrest the world's speed record from the present holder, Lieut. A. J. Williams, U.S.A.

FRENCH FLYERS
AGAIN DELAYED

TOKIO, June 5.—(By the Associated Press) Captain Georges Pelelier Doisy, the French aviator, who reached Tokyo, Korea, yesterday, on his flight, Paris to Tokyo, made a second attempt today to fly to Japan but was compelled to return to Tokyo owing to a dense fog. It is reported that he will make another attempt Saturday.

Doisy was prevented from crossing the Korean channel yesterday by stormy weather.

TWO KILLED IN AUTO ACCIDENT

CAIRO, Egypt, June 5.—Dr. Macy Brookes, an American surgeon practicing in Alexandria, who was in charge of the American Base hospital at Cannes, France, during the war, and Mrs. Brookes were killed in a motor car accident today. Dr. Brookes came here from America at the outbreak of the war, and joined the British army.

Later transferring to the United States, he served with the American Expeditionary Forces with which he served in France.

Some of the executives in attendance believed that even if Massachusetts should stand alone behind the trade-boasting campaign and proposed exposition, it could bill it as a New England states show favorably sent.

VIENNA, June 5.—The Austrian national bank has raised its discount rate from nine to 12 per cent.

PLAN TO BOOST NEW ENGLAND INDUSTRIES

Thirty-three members of the New England Association of Commercial Executives, of which Secretary-Manager George F. Wells, of Lowell chamber of commerce, is secretary this year, called Tuesday at Boston chamber of commerce headquarters, convening to discuss vital subjects dealing with programs aiming to increase the manufacture and distribution of familiar New England products.

Representatives of numerous business and executive organizations as well as important Massachusetts industries, were in attendance at the conference. The National Cotton Manufacturers' association was represented by Mr. A. C. Meservy, whose information on the textile situation in New England today is first-hand.

Suggestions were made at the commercial executives' conference favoring the immediate promotion of a comprehensive exposition, to be held in Boston during a continuous period of about two weeks, with exhibits of New England industries and products displayed for the public at large to see and study.

It was believed to be the proper thing to do in properly advertising New England products and setting more business, but until all the New England states show favorably sent, the proposition as briefly outlined at the commercial executives' rally the exposition plan will not be pushed.

Some of the executives in attendance believed that even if Massachusetts should stand alone behind the trade-boasting campaign and proposed exposition, it could bill it as a New England states show favorably sent.

HOW TO PAY JUNE
TAX INSTALLMENT

Those who have federal income tax payments to make on June 15 are warned by Malcolm E. Nichols, collector of internal revenue, to observe the following:

1. If at the time you filed your federal income tax return you paid three-fourths of the amount of tax reported, no further payment will be due.
2. If at the time you filed your return you paid one-half of the amount of tax reported, no payment will be due until Sept. 15.
3. If at the time you filed your return you paid only one-fourth of the amount of tax reported, you must pay on or before June 15 one-half of the amount paid by you when you filed your return.
4. The main point to be borne in mind is that one-half of the tax due from you this year must have been paid on or before June 15.

"AFTER SIX DAYS"

What Director Manager Samuel Torgon of The Strand had in mind when he looked "After Six Days," featuring Moses and the Ten Commandments for four days, starting Monday, was a super-photo drama that not only had superior entertainment power, but also educational attributes of an unusual nature. This monster film creation that cost into the millions and was five years in the making is recognized the country over as a screen offering of genuine merit. It shows in respective episodes the creation of the world, the fall of man in the Garden of Eden, Abel's death at the hands of his brother, the building of Noah's Ark and the deluge, the building of the tower of Babel and the scattering of the tribes, the destruction of the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah, the wisdom and justice of King Solomon and King Solomon's romance with the Ethiopian woman, as well as other well known events in Biblical history—events that are generally known to all, both young and old.

The visualization of these events into a ten reel picture has been recognized everywhere as one of the most tremendous and successful screen adaptations ever attempted since the beginning of motion pictures. The settings of this offering defy adequate description. Battles, pestilence, pagants, movements of whole peoples, all and pass on the screen like frail shadows. Children will understand better the Bible after seeing this truly instructive picture. Older folk will recall their Sunday school lessons, and will turn once again to the pages of that immortal book. And every one will find thrills, romance and entertainment. One of New York's best known critics says of this film: "It is seldom that I utter the opinion that we have a duty to perform—that of going to the theatre, but it seems to me that after seeing 'After Six Days,' we have a duty, and that is seeing this offering. This movie will give every man, woman and child a better understanding of the old Testament and I am convinced that it has religious attributes. I wish it were possible that every boy and girl of Sunday school age could see it. I believe that it is the duty of every father and mother to take their children to see this film, and if a Sunday school teacher wants to give her pupils an inspirational treat, then she should take or urge them all to see it."

"After Six Days" has lifted these various stories from the Bible and brought them to life with admirable success. There are thousands of people in the east, and hundreds of principle. The cost of the production mounts into the millions and the time of making it extended over a period of four years or more. Nothing so extensive was ever before attempted. Nothing, perhaps, will be attempted on such an elaborate scale again. Plan to see it, and remember that it is here for four days only, starting with Sunday's matinee.

One of those amusing "Our Gans" comedy creations is also on the bill.

That Real
Home Made
FlavorBread Like Mother
Used to Make

WHO could ever forget the way mother's bread smelled when she took it from the oven of the old wood stove, years ago when we were youngsters. Remember how we rushed in, breathless with anticipation, our appetites making it next to impossible for us to wait until the fresh loaves were ready to cut? Those, indeed, were "the good old days!"

Old Home Potato Bread takes you back in memory to those happy times. It's a loaf so much like mother's own that even she would find difficulty in telling the difference. And it's full of old-fashioned goodness and wholesomeness, too—a loaf that tastes, looks and even smells like real home-made bread.

We leave it to you—isn't Old Home just about the tastiest bread you've eaten in many a day? If you liked the bread you used to get at home, you'll surely agree that it is. We've tried to make it just like mother's own, and folks tell us we have succeeded. You can find out for yourself by ordering it from your grocer—in the extra long, wrapped loaf.

In this connection we note that the Garden City club, in the metropolitan district, where the American and the British amateur teams clash in the Walker Cup matches next fall, plans to build a grandstand facing the eighteenth green. This stand, big enough to accommodate 1500 people, would be the first stand ever used in golf.

SENATOR WALSH LIKES HIS FEW EXTRA WINKS

By N.E.A. Service
WASHINGTON, June 5.—An early riser is one of the things that Senator Thomas J. Walsh of Montana is not.

The fact that he must have his forty winks in the morning necessitates his motorizing to his daily duties at the capitol, instead of walking, as would be his natural preference.

Walsh drives his own car and parks it outside the senatorial sanction while he carries on his work. Motorizing is a matter of business rather than of pleasure.

You seldom see the senator's face outside the capitol between the hours of nine-thirty in the morning and five in the afternoon.

While other senators are dining at noon, Walsh likely is munching a piece of fruit. What he eats is of little concern, says he.

When the senate adjourns for the day Walsh hops into his car again and drives home. The machine is parked for the day and then he starts on foot, for the famous Rock Creek Park and the Washington zoo.

A two-hour stroll before supper is the usual thing, and often another walk follows in the evening.

Senator Walsh plays golf almost every Sunday. He likes the walking part of it best.

Theatres have little appeal—they

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.

When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.

A few cents buy a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel.—Ad.

Interfere with the eight hours sleep he insists upon getting every night.

When the senate session is over Walsh will head for Lake McDonald at Glacier National Park, Montana. That's his pet loafing spot.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

(By the Theatre's Own Press Agents)

"THE COVERED WAGON"

All great American dramas of semi-historical origin seem to hit the times just at the right period and no fuller illustration of this can be shown than the phenomenal success of "The Covered Wagon" which comes to the H. P. Keith Theatre for a week's engagement starting Monday, June 3. Tickets went on sale at the theatre box office today.

This story is the dramatization of the great Saturday Evening Post serial of the same title by Emerson Hough which is now in its sixth edition as a book and which was made into Famous Players-Lasky under the able direction of James Cruze.

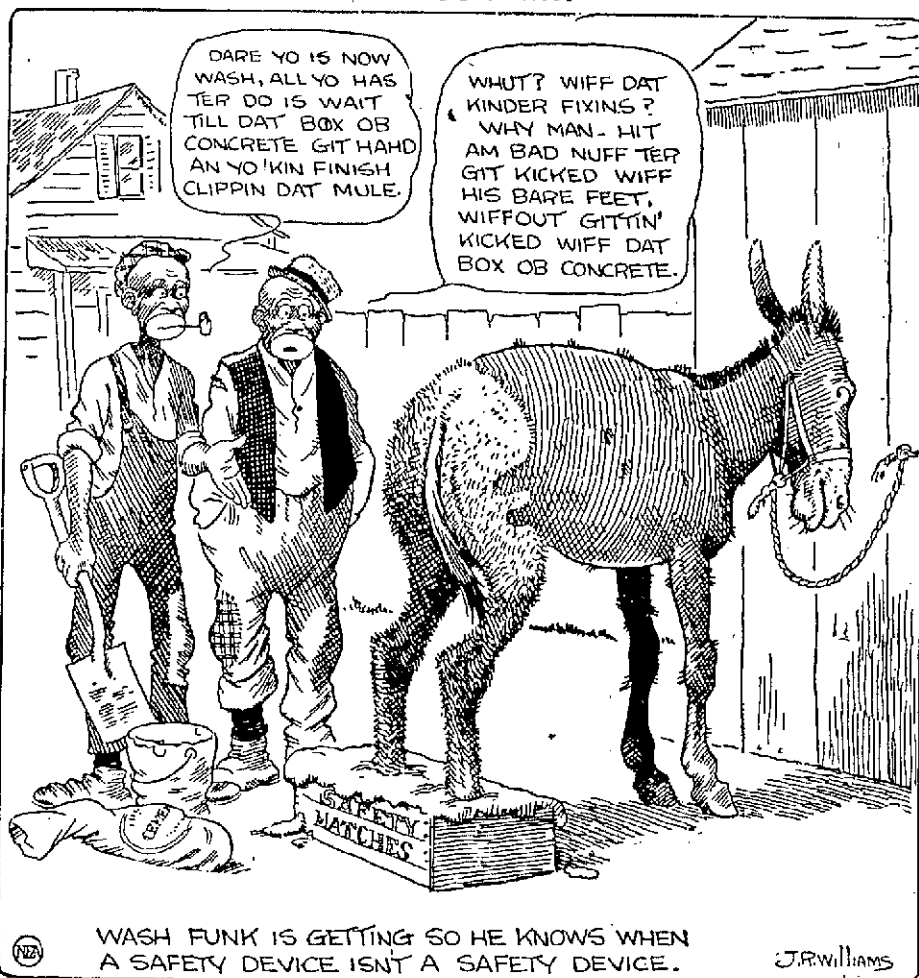

Emerson Hough as everyone familiar with his works knows was one of the foremost writers of the western and he had just before his death that he had reached the height of his dreams when he witnessed the screen success of his greatest endeavor. "The Trail of the Covered Wagon" is a story of the pioneer life in the west. The story of how these men and women of great courage and high resolution set forth upon their perilous trip of 2000 miles across the uncharted plains and desert is inspiring. In the covered wagons drawn by oxen and pulling an average of twelve miles a day they laughed and sang, and loved and suffered and fought to build what is now the great western heart of this greatest of all countries. Its appeal is the personal one of courage to do and hearts to serve that an unknown land might be opened up and the rich stream of wealth pour forth each year in crops that reach to the ends of the world. There is romance and adventure in every forward move of the winding trail as they trek onward and onward toward the end of the trail and the golden west which was no mere rainbow or chimera but something that will live forever in our minds and hearts. The production has been successfully presented in all the principal cities of the country and in London and Paris.

THE STRAND

When some one says "The Moulin Rouge" your thoughts instantly revert to the gay and scintillating Parisian cafe, which is dear to all those who would leave dull care behind. It does not seem possible that a lily could bloom in the exotic atmosphere of this restaurant, but Graham Cutler's scintillating photodrama, "Woman to Woman," which is to be presented at The Strand for three days beginning with matinee today, proves that innate purity will thrive regardless of its environment. The stellar role in this powerful production is taken by Betty Compson, who proves once more that she is capable as well as beautiful. As Delors, the exquisite flower-like little French dancer, she exudes a freshness and child-like charm which is untouched by her sordid surroundings. Then love, enchanting and devastating, wings his way into her life. On the eve of their marriage, her fiancé (played by Olive Brook) which opens at the Strand theatre today, the popular for his hard-riding, straight shooting and two-fisted mannerisms, abandons all this for a horned-rimmed spectacles, a check suit and a job as a shoe clerk. Unable to fit a dainty pair of slippers on a tiny, silk covered foot, he reflects that he always got a shoe on a horse by hammering it. But his method isn't so good in this case. With his eyes on ankles, and his mind decidedly not on his work, he unconsciously ties the shoe of his chieftain customer to that of an angular cold-eyed woman in the adjoining seat. The outcome is neither graceful nor happy for Tom Mix, but it sets the audience in an uproar. First while wrangler of steers, Mix finds himself fondling a small face handkerchief, inhibiting over and anon of its intoxicating perfume. That's not so bad, until he discovers that he has an audience consisting of hard-boiled sentimental punchers. Then it's not so good. But the audience enjoys it. Aching to fight a dozen times, but forced to control his temper or lose an inheritance, refused to speak to offenders, but hands them notes, begging that they meet him at a stipulated time after he has controlled himself for the required thirty days. Through it all, Mix proves that consciously or not, he is a natural comedian.

"Soft Boiled" will be recorded as one of the most humorous productions ever screened, not only because of the plot and the support, but primarily because of the unique character in which it places the pugnacious Tom Mix. And of course, he has the clever support of pretty Billie Dove, along with his famous friend and pal, Tony, the wonder horse, who plays a very important role in this picture.

The sixth round of "Fighting Magazine" fight stories, an Our Gang comedy, the latest chapter of Ruth Roland in "Haunted Valley" and a new Fox News complete the program.

R. F. KEITH'S THEATRE
Van Arman's Fashion Plate Minstrels are drawing excellent audiences to the R. F. Keith theatre, this week. Twice daily the big first part, with the half circle of 35 voices, and the big orchestra, give plenty of good music, and incidentally furnish dancing and plenty of comedy. The olio with the show is exceptionally good, and the dancing of Scott & Keefe, and impersonations of Olm Landers are high spots of it. There is no advance in prices for this big show. "The Hill Billy," which is a Jack Pickford picture, is the added attraction.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Bashfulness that bubbles over with laughter has arrived in town with Harold Lloyd's latest feature, Pathé comedy, "Girl Shy," playing all this week at the Merrimack Square theatre.

Lloyd has hitherto given to the screen many humorous novelties in his varied characterizations, but in "Girl Shy" he promises to outdo his previous laugh efforts with his portrayal of a very bashful small town boy, who made a secret study of girls, and the more he studied them, the more he feared them. It is a really novel role, and is full of fun, because Lloyd has by this time achieved a reputation for never disappointing his many followers.

Owing to the demand for seats at performances of "Girl Shy" so far this week, the management has made arrangements to give four performances daily for the remainder of the week.

There is an excellent surrounding program.

PROHIBITION PARTY PRAISES DAWES REPORT
Dr. Mason Asks Divine Guidance in "This Crisis of Our Nation and Party"

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 5.—When the national convention of the prohibition party was called to order today, Dr. James Gilbert Mason of New Jersey, in the opening prayer, asked Divine guidance in "this crisis of our nation and party, when the wicked was strong and corruption prevails in high places."

Delegates representing 23 states had reported "present" a half hour before the convention opened. A big sign in front of the building invited the passerby to enter. A bare dozen spectators filtered into the hall just before J. S. Murray, Nebraska, chairman of the national committee, stepped to the platform. Approximately 100 delegates were in the body of the convention.

After the opening prayer, the official call was read, credentials were handed in and H. P. Far, Clinton, Mo., was installed as temporary chairman. William F. Varney, Brookville, Centre, N. Y., was made temporary secretary. Mr. Far then started his keynote address.

"Germany's Last Chance of Salvation" is Opinion of Chancellor Marx
BERLIN, June 5. (By the Associated Press.)—The report prepared by General Dawes' expert reparations committee is "Germany's last chance of salvation" in the opinion of Chancellor Marx. He made this plain to the reichstag yesterday in presenting his reconstituted cabinet and outlining the policy he intends to pursue.

His statement, marking the first official presentation of the Dawes report issue before the reichstag met with the approval not only of the middle parties, forming the government coalition, but also the socialists. Dr. Marx declared that the government was prepared to receive the report as an unalterable and indivisible whole. The opposing parties would be expected to assume the same attitude; particularly must their cooperation be forthcoming to pass the enabling measures, placing Germany in a position to fulfill her obligations.

After the opening prayer, the official call was read, credentials were handed in and H. P. Far, Clinton, Mo., was installed as temporary chairman. William F. Varney, Brookville, Centre, N. Y., was made temporary secretary. Mr. Far then started his keynote address.

"AL" STILL MUST RE- PORT TO "MA"

By N.E.A. Service.
ALBANY, N. Y., June 5.—Governor "Al" Smith likes to work. It is the one form of recreation he is sure of getting these days.
For the stress of state business and the approach of the democratic convention have put in on his other favorite diversion—politics.

GOVERNOR SMITH REPORTS HE WILL BE LATE FOR DINNER.

He gets up in the morning with a sour on his lips, shaves himself, has a homey breakfast, stops a while to play with his children's pet in the back-yard menagerie, and goes down to the capital the same time as the clerks. A morning's work at his desk and he goes home for luncheon, taking his secretary with him usually.

A brisk walk back to the office, a clean-up of the day's work, and he likes a few holes of golf—if his time permits. But the end of the legislative left so many things hanging, that this sport has been passed up, although the governor still takes to it.

For "Al" Smith loves a wholesome laugh and gives many with his inimitable stories.

The readers of THE SUN are the bone and sinew of Lowell. They are practically all Lowell people who have helped to make the city what it is.

They earn their living in Lowell; they spend their money in Lowell; they are the main support of the Lowell merchants.

SUN readers are not in the habit of running to Boston for their supplies. They trade at home.

They are the largest body of newspaper readers in the city, and few of them read any other paper because they don't need to.

There is only one way for the merchant to reach this large, thrifty, industrious and intelligent body of readers, and that is through the columns of THE SUN.

Whenever the pressure of business becomes too great, he always calls up "Ma" Smith on the phone and tells her he will be late. For although her husband may be governor, she doesn't like to keep dinner waiting for him now any more than she did when he was in the trucking business in New York.

One Man Instantly Killed and Two Others Injured
When Train Hits Auto

CHEROKEE, June 5.—One man was instantly killed and two others injured, one critically, when a large automobile truck containing four men was struck by a South bound Boston & Maine passenger train at a temporary grade crossing here today. Fog obscured the view and the truck, when discovered by Engineer Frank Harvey of Springfield, was partly on the track.

Joseph Gilbert of Cherokee, chauffeur of the truck, was killed. Fred Kline of Holyoke, suffered possibly fatal injuries and Paul Rodery, minor hurts. Joseph Splinks jumped to safety. All were employed by the La France Construction of Holyoke.
The collision completely demolished the truck, throwing the body 50 feet.

SENATOR RALSTON NOT A CANDIDATE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—Declaring there "is something about the greatness of this exalted position that admonishes me against wanting to undertake the execution of its grave and solemn duties," United States Senator Samuel M. Ralston today urged the Indiana democratic state convention not to consider him a candidate for the presidency.
"Great as this honor is, however, I would not speak truthfully to you should I refrain from saying that I have never aspired to the presidency of this country," he said. "If there be those who doubt my sincerity in what I am saying, let me lay additional emphasis on my state of mind by declaring that this convention will please me most by allowing the delegates from Indiana to the New York convention to go uninstructed."

The senator said the democratic party should choose as its candidate for the presidency a man who is "known through and through; who knows America and who wants this country to do its part in establishing peace—continuous peace—among the nations of the earth."

FLAGRANT DISREGARD OF LAW IN NEGOTIATION OF OIL LEASES

Sen. Walsh of Montana Submits Oil Report—Charges Order by Which Reserves Were Transferred, Illegal—Leases Themselves "Indefensibly Wasteful"

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Flagrant disregard of the law in negotiation of the Sinclair and Doheny oil leases was charged in a report to the senate today prepared for the oil committee by its prosecutor, Senator Walsh, of Montana.

The executive order by which President Harding transferred the oil reserves from the navy to the interior department, was held in the report to have been illegal.

The manner in which the leases were negotiated secretly by former Secretary Fall was described as "disregard of the status," and the leases themselves were declared "indefensibly wasteful" and based on a policy which congress alone had authority to determine.

Fall's acceptance of $100,000 from E. L. Doheny was characterized as "in the last degree reprehensible," although no opinion was expressed as to whether the payment was in fact a bribe.

Shipment by Harry P. Sinclair of a consignment of blooded cattle to Fall's New Mexico ranch, and Sinclair's subsequent employment of Fall after he left the cabinet were cited without comment. Likewise without comment, the report related how Sinclair expended $100,000 to clear the Teapot Dome of conflicting claims, some of which, at least, were "shadowy."

Doheny and Roosevelt Exonerated
Former Secretary Doheny of the navy department, and Assistant Secretary Roosevelt, were exonerated from "any part whatever" in the negotiations leading up to the leases.

It was declared that despite diligent inquiry, the committee found "no facts of sufficient importance to report" in support of the rumor that public officers had speculated in stocks of the Sinclair and Doheny companies. Similarly, the report said, "the evidence fails to establish the existence" of any conspiracy between oil operators and others at the republican national convention in 1920 for exploitation of public resources.

Only a passing reference was made to the conflicting statements by which it had been sought to connect Edward B. McLean with a $100,000 payment to Fall, and no opinion on that subject was expressed.

"The only recommendation contained in the report, aside from a reference to court proceedings now in progress, was contained in the following summary:

"Had the legislation enacted by congress been observed in its spirit in dealing with the reserves; had it not been wrested out of all reason to afford some appearance of justification for the course pursued, further action by the law-making branch might not be necessary in view of what has transpired. It should be made plain:

"1.—That no lease or other contract authorizing or providing for the extraction of oil or gas from the reserves should be entered into except upon competitive bids, for which proposals should be duly advertised.

"2.—That no such lease or contract should be entered into for any purpose except to protect the reserves from drainage, and for such limited areas as should be drilled to that end, unless in the case of an emergency to be proclaimed by the president of the United States.

"3.—That every such lease or contract should be submitted to and approved by the comptroller general before taking effect.

"4.—That the authority conferred by the act of June 4, 1920, to exchange in restricted to the exchange of crude oil or gas for fuel oil or other products or derivatives of oil or gas."

Conceding the danger of drainage of oil from the reserves, which had been emphasized by Fall as one of the principal reasons which actuated him in making the leases, the report declared the crucial inquiry so far as Teapot Dome is concerned, was "whether it is better for the government to have 22,000,000 barrels of oil in the ground or 1,666,666 barrels in tanks at the seaboard." This question, it was asserted, should have been left to congress to decide.

Criticism Use of Royalty Oil
The EIR Bill lease to Doheny was described as "unexceptional" but the subsequent contracts with Doheny under which government royalty oil was exchanged for tankage, were attacked.

In criticizing the use of royalty oil for construction of steel storage tankage, the report declared that steel storage tankage should be constructed only upon a contract calling for the payment of money to be appropriated by congress for that specific purpose.

The sending of marines to drive claimants from Teapot Dome after the Sinclair lease had been signed was denounced "as perfectly outrageous use of the armed forces of the United States" resorted to to avoid a judicial inquiry into the validity of the Sinclair lease.

Discussing the leases as "bargains" the report declared that a lease under which "the government receives 6 percent of the oil in the ground and the lessee gets 94" cannot possibly be in the interest of or just to the government.

Discussing in more detail the evidence relating to Sinclair's elimination of other claimants from Teapot Dome, the report related how Leo Stack of Denver associated himself with E. L. Doheny in 1920 in an effort to secure lease of some oil wells along the boundary of the reserves, and how Stack later made an arrangement with the Pioneer Oil Co., which in turn made a settlement with Sinclair.

"Stack then enlisted the interest of the owners of a newspaper in Denver, Colo., the report contained, 'which immediately upon the execution of the lease, began publication of articles denouncing it as corrupt and contrary to public policy.' Suit was started in the name of Stack against that company (the Pioneer Oil Co.) and Sinclair, alleging a conspiracy against Stack. Sinclair settled this suit by an agreement under which he paid $250,000 and agreed to pay $750,000 more. The attacks of the newspaper thereupon ceased.

The proprietor of a rival newspaper, upon a claim even more shadowy if indeed it can be called a claim at all, got $25,000 out of the Pioneer Oil Co., as his share of the moneys yielded up by Sinclair.

The department of justice was declared to have failed to "diligently assert and maintain" the government's title to Section 36 within the confines of naval reserve No. 1 in California, the report stating that had this been done, and three other sections properly protected, the problem of drainage upon that reserve would have been "relatively simple."

PETITIONS FOR $10,000 A YEAR ALLOWANCE

NEW YORK, June 5.—John R. Halsey has been appointed referee by Supreme Court Justice Tieney, to determine whether Ruth E. Taylor, of Passaic, N. J., shall receive $10,000 a year from the $100,000 estate of Mrs. Henry M. Flagler, aunt of her deceased father.

Miss Taylor's petition for the allowance stated an income of that amount from the estate was her father's sole support, and that she is deprived of a livelihood since his death, although the annual income of the estate has been in excess of $375,000 for the past 10 years.

HEARINGS ON G. O. P. FACTIONAL ROWS

CLEVELAND, June 5.—With the most troublesome of the contests decided by sending the Henry Lincoln Johnson delegates from Georgia, the republican committee went on to wind up hearings here today on the remainder of the factional rows from southern states. The principal contest awaiting decision was that from Mississippi in which M. J. Mulvihill, the national committeeman, was contesting the seating of the faction under the leadership of State Chairman Daily. The Scipio A. Jones faction in Arkansas was seeking to unseat the delegates at-large under H. L. Remmel, the national committeeman but in the contests from South Carolina and Tennessee, only scattering district seats were in controversy. These cases were expected to consume little time.

GOMPERS TO APPEAR BEFORE G. O. P. COMMITTEE

CLEVELAND, June 5.—Samuel Gompers and other officers of the American Federation of Labor will appear before the republican national platform committee here next week in the interest of organized labor. Friends of Mr. Gompers say this is in line with his non-partisan play in other campaign years and that he undoubtedly will also appear before the democratic committee.

CONGESTION RELIEVED CIVIL WAR IN ALBANIA

Farm Relief Bill Dropped in

House — Muscle Shoals

Question Put Over

WASHINGTON, June 5.—With farm relief legislation along the lines of the defeated McNary-Haugen bill definitely abandoned by republican leaders in the house and the Muscle Shoals question put over until Dec. 3, in the senate, the congestion in congress today has been considerably relieved.

Much remained to be done before adjournment Saturday night, however, with reclamation and naval modernization measures the principal items remaining on the program.

An omnibus pension bill similar to one passed late yesterday, carrying an omnibus pension bill similar to one passed late yesterday, carrying about 800 proposals affecting veterans of various wars and departments, had right-of-way in the senate today, with the $150,000,000 bill designed to bring the navy up to the 5-5-3 ratio agreed upon by the Washington arms conference in second place.

The latter, as passed by the house last week, called for construction of eight cruisers and six river gunboats and conversion of six battleships into oil burners with installation, in addition, of devices for protection against submarine and aircraft.

Despite the decision of republican leaders to abandon efforts to put through a farm export measure, agricultural relief was before the house in the form of the Reck resolution, instructing the interstate commerce commission to make a freight rate survey looking to a general reduction in transportation charges on farm products.

Conference at White House

WASHINGTON, June 5.—After consultation with President Coolidge, Rep. Longworth, the republican leader, conceded last night there was no possibility of enacting a satisfactory substitute for the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill at this session of congress.

During the day Mr. Longworth and Rep. Fletcher of Kansas and Sanders of Indiana, both members of the republican steering committee, had discussed with the president a plan they had evolved to place the marketing abroad of surplus wheat, flour and meat products in the hands of the war finance corporation, and the word had gone out that if the substitute proved acceptable to the president it would be pressed to a vote as an administrative measure.

UNOFFICIAL STRIKE OF SHOPMEN IN LONDON

LONDON, June 5.—An unofficial strike broke out today among the shopmen at the London Electric Railway workshops and power stations and on the Great Western Railway. The men demand 10 shillings increase in their weekly wage with a minimum of 12, the inclusion of 16 shillings 6 pence war bonus in their present wage, and one week's holiday yearly on full pay. The suddenness of the strike, which became effective at midnight, caused considerable inconvenience to thousands of workers using the stations in the north of London, affected by the strike, and this inconvenience spread later in the morning to the underground system where only a skeleton service was being maintained, this forenoon. Forty tube stations were closed because many of the employees at the big Chelsea station had taken part in sympathy with the strikers.

TOO HAPPY, MOTIVE FOR SUICIDE AT QUEBEC

QUEBEC, June 5.—The body of an unidentified young man, who apparently had committed suicide because wealth had made him "too happy," was found yesterday beside a limousine bearing a New York state license, near St. Come de Beauce, close to the Maine border.

A note pinned to the coat read: "Do not mind me. My name would be useless to you, but I wish the world to know that I committed suicide because I was too happy. I always got what I wanted in my life. My parents are millionaires."

"I realized all that I was humanly possible to wish. I do not find life good enough to remain in it. I have a strong longing to find out what there is in another life and I am going away."

There was a bullet wound in the head.

FOR NEW BOARD OF TAX APPEALS

WASHINGTON, June 5.—Treasury officials today began a series of conferences to work out the organization of the new board of tax appeals created by the revenue act.

Although the law places the tax board outside of the treasury, President Coolidge has stipulated that he desires the treasury to build up a nucleus of an organization and suggest names for membership.

MACADAMIZING ROAD IN WEST BILLERICA

BillERICA town officials are endeavoring to have the macadamizing job on Nashua road in West BillERICA completed this year. If funds can be secured to finish the work contemplated. Experts' opinions differ as to what it would cost. Former Highway Surveyor John W. Bestwick, Assistant Engineer Boucher of the state highway department, and Edgar P. Sewell were present at a meeting of the selectmen held yesterday afternoon in town hall, the conference covering all features of the road proposition. The selectmen decided to present the matter to the finance committee.

It may cost $10,000 or more to complete the macadamizing of Nashua road—a balance of about 5500 feet as laid out in 1923. The sum of $20,000 has already been spent by the town, county and state on macadamizing.

Engineer E. D. Salvin of the department of public works was present at the selectmen's meeting and told the officials that he considered the cost of the dual stretch of roadway would be too high to come under the estimation named—$10,000. Grading was costly, he said, and on that construction problem alone, no estimate in cost could be made in advance.

ALLEGED PLOTTERS ACQUITTED
RELLIS, June 5.—The two men accused of plotting the assassination of General Von Seeckt, the German army commander, were acquitted today. WOMEN'S CLUBS TO
THRESH OUT PROBLEMS

BY JACK JUNGMEYER
N.E.A. Service Writer
HOLLYWOOD, June 5.—Sentiment on motion picture censorship among America's influential women will probably be crystallized as a result of the biennial convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Los Angeles June 3-5.

Wide difference of opinion is scheduled to be threshed out for recommended action, at the very gates of Hollywood. And whatever these proposals will doubtless find reflection in political action in a number of states.

If this controversy, long an issue among the federated women, is to reach official conclusion, it would seem appropriate that it should be held here at the hub of the industry, where producers are able to present something in the nature of an exhibit to support their side of the argument.

Hollywood has mustered its most persuasive envoys to defend liberal latitude in exploiting on the screen phases of life accorded increasingly frank presentation in other media and social activities.

There will be more or less open house in Hollywood for the visiting delegates, many of whom will thus have the first opportunity to see the inside of a movie plant and to meet prominent screen players, directors and producers.

Quite aside from the merits of censorship, this personal contact with movie folk has in the past proved a most effective means of mollifying the critics of the screen and apostles of more rigid censorship. It is at any rate calculated to placate the old and to make no new enemies.

The federation has endorsed state censorship in the past, but not federal supervision. At the Hot Springs biennial in 1918 there was adopted a resolution, never rescinded, which advocated recommendation to state legislatures of censorship statutes similar to those in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Kansas to "cope with an evil which so seriously threatens the proper foundation of society."

In 1923 at the Chattanooga convention the plan had been to start an active censorship campaign. It was dropped when Will Hays, representing the producers, assured the women that they had nothing to fear but bigger and better movies.

Now the pros and anti seem again to have reached the point where decisive official action, one way or the other, is imminent.

That at least would insure the women a royal time in Hollywood by the defenders of cinematic freedom.

Everything But Tea Dumped Into Boston Harbor Now

THEY BOUGHT THE WHOLE STATES OF MAINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE, VERMONT, CONNECTICUT, RHODE ISLAND AND MASSACHUSETTS FROM THE INDIANS FOR THREE BOXES OF ANGLE CHEESE, A SET OF GOLF STICKS AND A BATH TUB.

BY WILL CRESSY

BOSTON, Mass., June 4.—Boston, the Hub of the Universe. A hub in part of a wheel. Bostonians all have them.

The first white man to set foot in Boston was a Swedish heavy-weight, Lief Erickson, in the year 1001. Lief was just sort of skulldugging around on a summer vacation and did not realize what an opportunity he was missing to establish one of Boston's First Families, for unfortunately he left no descendants to speak of.

Two years later, his brother came over but he liked it so much less that he went down to Fall River and died there.

But it was not until 1630 something or other, that Boston really got a start. Then a lot of disappointed Methodists over in England got over at the door they were getting from the K. of C. and the K. K. K. and the Quakers and the Shakers, and so they decided to go over to America where they could do others as others had been doing unto them.

So they bought a Dutch excursion boat and as it was November, they called it The Mayflower. And they loaded it with ancestors and antique furniture and started over to be pilgrims and get their names in the papers and sell off the furniture.

While the exact dimensions of this ship have been mislaid, statisticians have figured it out, taking for a basis the amount of furniture brought over.

ORGANIZATIONS THAT
HAVE NO UNION CARDS

Rarely do "inside" news items concerning the activities of railroad men's fraternal or class instruction organizations reach the columns of public prints, yet, all over New England today, particularly in districts of the so-called "car shops," there are railroad men's organizations that have no union cards, no dues, no particular financial expense costs attached. These organizations are today proving highly attractive and profitable in many ways to loyal men on the Boston & Maine railroad, New York, New Haven & Hartford and Maine Central pay-rolls.

The popular name for some of the railroad men's volunteer meeting organizations, now successfully operating at such important points as Billerica and Nashua, N. H., is "Foremen's association."

The Sun is informed that meetings are held once a month by these individuals, district-succed-and-managed organizations. They have been in process of promotion for many weeks past, as a matter of fact, and have thus far been eminently well attended and highly interesting from many viewpoints to better relationships between corporation and car workers and also serving as instruction institutions of real value.

N. A. Campbell of the New York Air Brake Company, gave an instructive talk on car braking appliances, with special references to maintenance and repairs, at the April meetings of the Concord car shop workers and the Billerica-Terminus Foremen's association. The same subject was covered by R. C. Couzens and F. A. Tutbill, air brake instructors, at the joint meeting of the Pass Deerfield Springfield and Mechanicville foremen in the East Deerfield "Y."

There was a good attendance at all three points, including a number of representatives of the Mechanical Employers' association at Billerica, W. O. Forman, assistant mechanical superintendent, was also in attendance at the Billerica-Terminus meetings.

The Concord foremen's association held an interesting special meeting on May 2, with a lecture by Supt. G. A. Wyman on "Value Motion."

Arrangements are being made to have George C. Ketchum, supervisor of signals on the Boston & Maine railroad, give a lecture on "Development of the Automatic Signal on the Boston & Maine," which has already been delivered in Concord. The lecture there was held at the railroad "Y" auditorium, and a replica, not only of railroad signals, but of controlling mechanical appliances, was shown in connection with the Ketchum lecture.

SAYS SHE WAS ALWAYS TIRED

Sleep Was Not Refreshing Because Her Blood Was Thin and Nerves Exhausted

To be tired after unusual exertion is natural but to be tired all the time is a symptom of debility. Sleep and rest should restore the strength. When they do not it is a sign that the blood is thin and is not furnishing the nerves the nourishment they need. This is an anemic condition and is corrected by building up the blood.

Mrs. Albert Beaudoin, of No. 29 Wentworth street, Biddeford, Me., was anemic from the time she was a young girl. When she grew to womanhood the bloodless condition became most distressing. "I was thin, had not a bit of color and was tired all the time," she says. "My sleep was not refreshing and I would be as tired in the morning as when I went to bed. I had no ambition. At times I had nervous spells when I would shake all over. After these spells I would be exhausted. I was also subject to sick headaches, had terrible pains in the back, shortness of breath and fluttering of the heart."

"I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and gave them a trial. In a few days I knew they were helping me. The trembling sensations were gone and I was growing stronger. I continued their use and they brought back my color and strength. I shall always recommend Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for I know they helped me and I have faith in them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., at sixty cents per box, postpaid. Write today for a copy of the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."

ELKS PREPARE TO HIT TRAIL FOR STATE ASSOCIATION MEETING

Pittsfield, in the Heart of Berkshires, Chosen for Annual Convention—Three-Day Program Opens June 15—Scores Going From Lowell

Scores of Lowell Elks, with their wives, sisters, mothers and sweethearts, are busy planning their participation in the annual convention of the Massachusetts Elks which will take place June 15, 16, and 17 at Pittsfield. And Pittsfield lodge and the residents of that beautiful city in the heart of the Berkshires are working hard to arrange a royal welcome for the hithered herd when it descends upon them.

Joseph P. Frances, Jr., of New Bedford, president of the Massachusetts State Elks Association, will preside at the convention. He spoke before a recent meeting of Lowell lodge and extended a cordial invitation to all members of the order to attend the big affair. This month's convention will be the ninth annual affair of its nature, the first having been held in Pittsfield in 1915. Last year the convention was held in Greenfield and the feature of this gathering was the dedication of "The Elk on the Trail," a massive monument in memory of Massachusetts Elks who served the colors.

This year the convention proper will be held in the auditorium of the Pittsfield Boat club on the shore of beautiful Pontonoc lake. The hall is big enough to accommodate all the delegates and visitors, and those who prefer not to sit in the convention hall may sit themselves in comfort on the huge verandas overlooking the lake. After the convention session is over the delegates will be entertained at a clam bake to be held across the lake, transportation being furnished. In the evening will be held the convention ball in the auditorium with a display of fireworks to live up to the proceedings.

A luncheon is to be provided for the ladies, who will also be entertained with automobile rides throughout the country. There will be a ball game between Pittsfield and Springfield of the Eastern league, a parade, and much merriment by the newly-organized band of Pittsfield lodge. Co-operation of the chamber of commerce, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lion clubs has been volunteered, so that, all in all, the ninth convention will be some party.

LAST EVENING'S FIRE ALARMS

A conflagration was visualized in the minds of many last evening when box 513, at Middlesex street and Broadway, was sounded twice within an hour. The first alarm, at 8:25 o'clock, was for fire in a pile of old ties in the street, railway company yard in Middlesex street. The second alarm, almost an hour later, was for a blazing freight car near the John C. Meyer thread mill. The car was empty but was badly damaged before the fire was extinguished.

At 8:25 o'clock last evening a still alarm was sounded for a fire in an automobile in Mammoth road.

Washday need not tire you out • RINSO gives you the cleanest wash in the quickest, easiest way • No more hard rubbing

THE end of washday—and yet you feel fresh and vigorous.

Ready for any game active little brains suggest—eager to explore the cunning resources of the new doll house—glad to read over and over the adventures of Mother Goose to tiny listeners.

You have kept your energy because you have been spared the hardest work of washday—the hard constant rubbing.

ONLY a new kind of soap and a really modern soap could do this for you—and this is just what Rinso is—the first laundry soap that meets the needs of the modern housewife.

Everything about Rinso is modern—even its form is new—fine, creamy-white granules that dissolve completely in hot water. You get a rich soapy solution with more cleansing power than bar soap—and so much quicker and easier to use.

Your clothes are spotless, and you have helped prolong its wearing qualities—you have saved time, strength and labor.

Rinso takes the place of any other laundry soaps or soap you may now be using. It is a complete soap in itself—it does the whole wash whatever your washing methods may be. You need no other soap with it.

Use the rich Rinso solution in your tubs, boiler, washing-machine. The water gets soapy right through—an even rich soapiness that goes into every fibre of your clothes and gently soaks dirt out. Even ground-in dirt needs only a light rubbing.

And then the rinsing is so easy and so thorough—no bits of soap left to ruin clothes under the iron—no soil left to make them look dingy—and, of course, no harmful rubbing at any time.

EVERYWHERE the progressive American woman is using this labor-saving soap. Already more than a million packages are used every week.

Rinso is made by the makers of Lux. Every grocer has it—in regular size and the big new package. Get it today for your next wash. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

Billy Evans SAYS

Who are the greatest athletes?
Recently in discussing various phases of college athletics, I put that question to Major Cavanaugh, famous football coach at Boston college.

For years Cavanaugh, a Dartmouth graduate, coached the football team of that institution with great success. Boston college wanted Cavanaugh to put it on the football map. Six years ago, it was little more than a day school. Now it is known the country over because of the prowess of its football teams coached by Cavanaugh.

A year after taking charge at Boston college, Cavanaugh set the football world agog by twice beating great Yale eleven.

Centre college won grid fame by defeating Harvard one year, yet little Boston college beat Yale on successive years.

These two wins made Cavanaugh a much-sought-after coach. Football mentors do possess sentiment, despite the belief of some college professors, who insist their only objective is a fat salary.

He turned down a half dozen offers for twice the money he is now getting at Boston college. Route Rockne recently did a similar thing to remain at Notre Dame.

Getting back to who are the greatest athletes.

The Irish race has always rated high in turning out great athletes. The Germans have been very successful. England has had its share and the Yankees are always feared. Major Cavanaugh's reply to my query was food for thought.

"The Poles are the greatest athletes the colleges are getting today," said the major.

"No doubt a lot of Irish will want to kill me for that statement, but it's the truth," he continued.

"The Poles are immune to pain, their courage is remarkable, and they are unspelled."

"It will take a couple of generations before battery goes to their heads and breaks down their athletic value."

"I only need to call attention to the fact that the star of the Harvard baseball team is a Pole. I could offer no better example of the truth than the Pole is coming into his own as a college star."

Then Major Cavanaugh went on to relate how his star tackle of last season, Kozlowski, a Pole, played the greater part of the year with both shoulder blades broken, a special brace making it possible.

"In order to impress upon me that he was able to play he would start trying to make holes in the brick wall of the gymnasium," explained Cavanaugh. "You simply can't deny that kind of spirit."

GRAND OLD LADY PASSES THE CENTURY MARK

With scores of friends gathered to honor her on the 102nd birthday, Mrs. Lucy Cook, for 31 years a resident at the Old Ladies' Home in Fletcher st., is today entertaining old and new acquaintances come to tender congratulations and good wishes.

Mrs. Cook was born in Canada.

MRS. LUCY COOK

June 5, 1922. She married John L. Cook, an Englishman, and for several years previous to her entrance at the home, resided in this city, with her husband, four children, all of whom are dead.

Mrs. Cook, still the proud possessor of all her faculties is enjoying general good health. Some of her work, especially, is beautiful and it is with pride that Mrs. Cook calls attention to her handiwork. All her work is accomplished without the aid of spectacles, and although over a century old, Mrs. Cook claims that her eyesight is normal.

Last evening a group of young people of the Salvation Army gathered at the home to honor Mrs. Cook, who sat through the entertainment with her guests. She was presented an enormous bouquet of roses, carnations and sweet peas by the young ladies. A fine program of instrumental numbers and readings was enjoyed by the ladies of the home.

Miss Buchan, a personal friend of Mrs. Cook, today presented her a beautiful birthday cake with the following inscription, Mrs. Lucy Cook, 1922-1924.

Mrs. Cook was also the recipient of numerous gifts of money from her many friends as well as scores of cards and letters of congratulation.

"FOOTRACE OF CENTURY"

Carpentier, in Full Retreat, Hit Gibbons Once and Got $75,000 For It

By JOE WILLIAMS

CHICAGO, June 5.—George Carpentier's first money grabbing expedition in this country was entitled "The Battle of the Century."

His last one—and it certainly ought to be his last one—will go down in the carefully edited records as "The Footrace of the Century."

From start to finish the Frenchman took it on the run in his little futile paces with Tommy Gibbons at Michigan City, pausing only at discreet and safely spaced intervals to swing a wild, impatient hand in the general direction of the St. Paul Irishman.

It was the most complete and painstaking retreat in the history of pugilism and, contrasted with the noble stand put forth by another Frenchman, Eugene Criqui, against Johnny Dundee last fall, the frantic scurryings of Carpentier were nothing short of disgraceful.

An Easy $75,000 For Carp

The game Criqui gave the fans a run for their money. For that matter so did Carpentier, but it was a run that would easily have matched the high voltage strides of a Paddock or a Murpherson.

Carpentier did absolutely nothing to earn his $75,000 guarantee except to pose gracefully for the photographers and to flop dramatically on what he said was a turned ankle in the ninth round.

The ankle incident, by the way, is his alibi and will be pressed energetically to save the face of the proposed match with Gene Tunney, American light heavyweight champion.

"I would have knocked out Gibbons if my ankle hadn't collapsed," Carpentier told newspapermen after the fight.

This crack merits a low, rumbling growl.

Only Landed One Punch

The Frenchman only hit Gibbons one solid punch, a straight right bender to the jaw in the middle of the fourth round. It was a carbon copy of the punch he landed in the second round of the Dempsey fight, except that it did not send Gibbons reeling, nor did it do much as damage him.

Other Carpentier fighting qualities, is gone. Had Carpentier stood up and fought in his old-time aggressive manner we have no doubt but that Gibbons would have stopped him in one of the early rounds. It is not easy to get a full shot at a man's vitals when he is continually backing away. This was Carpentier's method of keeping a worn-out fighting mechanism functioning.

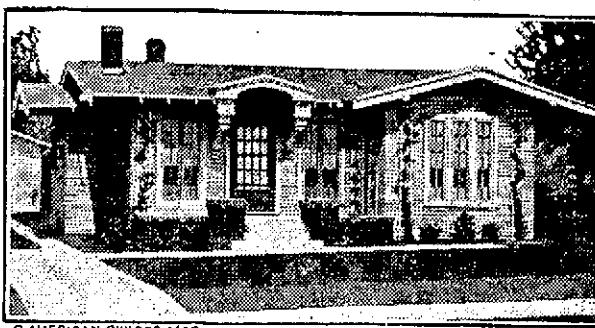

One spirited burst of aggressiveness would just about have consumed all his energy.

Gibbons None Too Alert

At that Gibbons should have scored a knockout. He had more than one chance. The Frenchman was ready to fight in the third and again in the seventh. It took quite a bit of vocal effort on the part of the parental champions to get him to come out for the eighth round. Georges was perfectly capable of walking out and leaving the party flat on his vulgar back.

Gibbons may be criticised for not making a consistently relentless attack. He has a queer fault of letting

PLAN AND FRONT VIEW OF SMALL BUNGALOW

The small family, with few extra requirements, will find this four-room bungalow convenient, comfortable and homey.

down in the midst of a winning rally. Time after time he had the Frenchman cornered but let him get away through indecision and super-caution.

These lapses will probably cost Gibbons a return match with Dempsey. If a man can't stop the decrepit Carpentier of today, even in full retreat, there is little reason to believe he will annoy the champion.

Over eighty thousand readers daily will have an opportunity to read your ad. if you place it in The Sun, Lowell's greatest advertising medium.

For the small family alone, the breakfast room off the kitchen is convenient and will do for most dining purposes.

No vestibule is built, saving the space required for this to make a roomier living and dining room.

A house like this should cost about $5000, dependent on the locality and its proximity to the sources of supply.

COMMON SENSE

When a merchant advertises his wares in a newspaper, he does not appeal to the paper, but to its readers. He solicits the patronage of those readers whether he agrees with the policy of the paper or not.

To refrain from advertising in a paper of wide circulation simply because he does not agree with the editor on all public questions, is not using common sense. It is a form of business suicide. It has sent many short-sighted business men into bankruptcy. A dealer might as well put a sign over his store notifying all who do not think as he does that he does not want their patronage. Readers of newspaper advertisements know when and where their patronage is welcome.

Collinsville Priest Murdered

Priest Was Kneeling at Bedside Giving Murderer's Father Last Rites of Church

While administering the last rites of the Catholic church this morning, to a dying parishioner, Rev. Michael C. Gilbride, Collinsville pastor, was killed by two revolver shots fired in his temple by the son of the dying man. Captain David Petrie, of the Lowell police department, was wounded in arresting the murderer, and Policeman Joseph Lamoureux required hospital treatment.

Brought to the Lowell station the murderer maintained an air of bravado, declared himself an unbeliever, and when told that he had killed the priest said forcibly "I hope I have." Later when Father Tighe, O. M. I., pastor of the Immaculate Conception church, visited the man he leered at him and pointing scornfully said "Another traitor."

John J. King, Jr., is the murderer. He is 37 years old and has lived all his life with his father on their farm in New Boston road, between Collinsville and the Dracut Navy Yard. The father is a member of St. Mary's parish in that town but the son has never displayed any religious leanings.

The parish priest had visited the farm yesterday and noted that the father, who is over 70 years of age, was failing fast. He was called at 7 o'clock this morning and took with him the Blessed Sacrament. As the priest knelt at the bedside of the dying man, the son, a maniacal light in his eyes which still remains with him, entered and muttering incoherently, fired his revolver point blank at the administering priest.

Bert Cluff, who retired as chief of police of Dracut a fortnight ago, was called to the scene with Officer Thomas. He sent a hurry request to Lowell for aid and Capt. David Petrie, Sergt. Philip Dwyer, and Officers Joseph Lamoureux and John Whelan rushed to the scene together with a reporter for The Sun.

They found that the murderer, after committing his dastardly crime, had coolly gone out into a field and continued his hoeing. Making repairs, the officers, The Sun's reporter and Medical Examiner Marshall Alling approached the murderer from different angles. As they approached the murderer he turned towards Capt. Petrie and displayed his revolver. As he was about to raise the revolver Officer Lamoureux fired three shots at the man in rapid succession.

One struck him on the head and he fell, apparently stunned, to the ground. As they closed in on him the murderer proved to be playing possum. He turned and fired, striking Capt. Petrie. Quicker than it takes to tell the others had overpowered their man.

King, the murderer, has a brother living in Kenwood. He and his father alone worked the farm.

REV. MICHAEL C. GILBRIDE

ST. MARY'S CHURCH, COLLINSVILLE

CAPT. DAVID PETRIE

Story of the Murder

Fr. Gilbride yesterday visited the King residence and after seeing the condition of the elder John King, told Delia Cavanaugh, Mr. King's niece and housekeeper, that he would return today with the sacraments.

This morning, shortly after 8 o'clock, Fr. Gilbride arrived at the King residence, which is about two miles from Collinsville, on the New Boston road. Entering the front room, he laid his hat on the table and proceeded to the kitchen. As he entered the kitchen, John King, Jr., was eating his breakfast and rose from the table, murmuring unintelligibly and drew a revolver, a standard model 32 calibre, from his pocket and pointed it at Fr. Gilbride.

Fr. Gilbride, startled by the young man's action, backed into the elder King's bedroom and closed the door. With a shout of rage, the younger King threw himself against the door and forced it open. Fr. Gilbride shouted once and King fired three times, all three bullets finding their mark in the priest's body. He fell to the floor, upsetting the table upon which the blessed candles and receptacles for his use in dispensing the Blessed Sacrament were arranged and died within a few minutes.

Son Threatened Father

The elder King, although seriously ill, shouted for help and was threatened by his son. Rising from his bed, he succeeded in gaining the outdoors and collapsed under a tree, exhausted from shock and the strain of moving about.

Miss Cavanaugh, though paralyzed for a moment by the terrible tragedy which had occurred in the house, quickly recovered her composure and rushed to the telephone in the front room. The murderer followed her and cursed steadily. At most hysterical, she managed to call the murderer's brother, William King of Kenwood, and informed him of the tragedy. Before she finished her conversation, the younger King threatened to shoot her, saying, "Get out of the house or I'll kill you, too." She heeded his warning and fled to the Simond's farmhouse, situated about a quarter of a mile away, where she remained until assistance arrived.

William King called his brother-in-law, Frank Burgess, also of Kenwood, and drove in a machine to Dracut Centre, where they sought to locate a police officer. Unable to find any of the policemen, they went to the home of Bert Cluff, who retired as chief of police only a few weeks ago, and told him of the affair. Without waiting to secure a revolver, club, or a coat, he got in the machine and drove to the Navy Yard, where they got Constable Thomas and then hastened to the scene of the crime, arriving there at about 8:45 o'clock. Mr. Cluff and Officer Thomas entered the house, found Fr. Gilbride dead on the floor and telephoned to Medical Examiner Marshall L. Alling of this city.

Was Hoeing Potatoes

Going out into the farmyard, the officer and ex-chief saw young John King hoeing potatoes, and whistling loudly, in a patch near some heavy wooded land. As he saw them, he retreated to the stump of a tree nearby and procured his revolver, which he waved and threatened them with.

Realizing the futility of attempting to capture the murderer, who they believed to be suffering from a killing mania, with only one of the four men present armed, Mr. Cluff telephoned to the local police station and informed Captain Petrie of the trouble and asked for all the assistance that could be given.

A Sun reporter was talking to Captain Petrie at the time, and was invited to go along with them. Officer Joseph Lamoureux, Sergt. Philip Dwyer, Chauffeur Lennon, Capt. Petrie and The Sun reporter constituted the party leaving the station, and when the machine reached Central and Market streets, Officer Frank Whelan was impressed for service. Capt. Petrie had taken along with him a revolver for Bert Cluff and one of the riot clubs.

The trip to the scene of the murder was made in very few minutes and on the way out Captain Petrie told the various men what to do upon arrival. He, he said, would try to reason with the murderer and keep his attention centered upon him while the other officers came up in back and seized him.

Then arriving at the house, he reported his efforts and told the men that he wanted no shooting if it could be avoided and to take care of themselves especially, if anyone was to be shot it should be the murderer and not a police officer.

The house is situated upon an elevation fronting on New Boston road and with a barn to the right and a little down grade. In back of the house is another sharp decline and stretching out from the back of this is a large level farm land, with a clump of trees at the further edge, about a quarter of a mile from the farmhouse. The murderer was still at work in the potato patch hoeing near the wooded section. Captain Petrie and Bert Cluff proceeded across the open land, in plain view of the murderer, to attract his attention while the other officers came up in back of him. He saw the two men crossing the field, evidently unarmed, for they carried their revolvers in back of them, and went again to the stump of a tree and secured his revolver.

Captain Petrie Shot

When the captain and Mr. Cluff were within 100 yards of him, he waved his arms frantically above his head and then rushed at them, raising his revolver to fire. He fired once, and Captain Petrie and Mr. Cluff retreated slightly, as the other officers were coming in back of the murderer and they feared to shoot. He fired again and then, when within 50 feet of Captain Petrie, fired the third shot, which hit the captain above the right lung.

As the captain was hit, Officer Lamoureux saw an opportunity to bring his gun into action, as did the other officers, and fired three shots, the third of which, it is believed, hit the murderer a glancing blow on the head and dropped him to the ground. Captain Petrie had staggered when hit, but quickly recovered and rushed young King as he fell. Lamoureux and Cluff also rushed him and just as the captain swung his revolver to stun the murderer, he fired another shot. So close was Officer Lamoureux at this time that powder from the discharge burned him severely over his right eye. In a moment the captain's revolver had struck the murderer's head and the other officers had handcuffs on him.

Petrie Will Recover

Painfully suffering from a severe bullet hole in his right shoulder, but relentless in his endeavor to bring the prisoner under subjection, Capt. Petrie failed to waver. His mission accomplished, he remained on his feet and, although a little pale and shaken by the narrow escape, he walked to Fr. Alling's ambulance and was rushed to the Lowell Veterans hospital. First-aid treatment was administered immediately and at noon today the authorities stated that he was resting comfortably and that he would recover.

The prisoner, bleeding from the bullet wound in his head and the cut inflicted by the captain's revolver, presented a sorry spectacle to the police. As he was taken to the police machine by the officers he apparently did not realize the enormity of his crime, for he smiled and cursed in turn and did not stop his obscene talk until one of the officers threatened to wave him another that would shut him up for several minutes.

Officer Lamoureux returned to the city in the police machine and was then sent to the Corporation hospital for treatment. After his injuries were treated he returned to the station and resumed duty.

Tokyo, June 5 (By the Associated Press). Captain Georges Pelletier, the French aviator, who reached Tokyo, Korea, yesterday, on his attempt today to fly to Japan, but was compelled to return to Tokyo, owing to a dense fog. It is reported that he will make another attempt Saturday.

Duay was prevented from crossing the Korean channel yesterday by stormy weather.

Fr. Lynch Goes to Aid

In the absence of Rev. John J. Shaw, pastor of St. Michael's church, this city, who is in Portland, Me., acting as one of the adjusters of Bishop Walsh's will, Rev. James E. Lynch, assistant pastor, made a hurried trip to the murder scene in Collinsville to render any assistance required.

WAS COLLINSVILLE PASTOR EIGHT YEARS

Rev. Michael C. Gilbride came to the pastorate of St. Mary's church, Collinsville, eight years ago. In fact he celebrated his first mass in St. Mary's church All Saints day, Nov. 1, 1916. He succeeded Rev. Thomas A. Walsh, now of Chelsea, as pastor. He came to St. Mary's from St. Augustine's church, South Boston, where he had assisted as curate under the late Mgr. McLaughlin, for over 15 years. He was born in Abington and attended Boston college, later taking the theological course in Brighton seminary, where he was ordained by Archbishop Williams.

Since coming to Collinsville eight years ago, Fr. Gilbride had worked zealously to build up the parish and although the parish was covered many miles, he was always busy ministering to the spiritual wants of the members of his parish and building plans for the future. He had just about completed plans for the opening of the Catholic chapel at Lakeview for which purpose he had secured a few weeks ago and it was expected that in a short time steps would be taken by him to remodel the theatre building into a place suitable for church services. St. Mary's was his first pastorate and he took a noticeable pride in his pretty little church and in the development of his parish. Before coming to Collinsville he was loved by the parishioners of St. Augustine's church, many of the successful men in South Boston being counted as his personal friends. His association in Lowell brought him into contact with a great many people and while not identified with his parish, they nevertheless added in everything in which the late pastor was interested.

Rev. Fr. Gilbride was deeply devoted to his flock and to the people of Collinsville as well as to the general interests of the village. The sorrow in the village at the news of his tragic death is profound.

CIVIL WAR IN ALBANIA

BERLIN, June 5.—Despatches received here indicate a few weeks ago war in Albania and the movement is said to be spreading throughout the Balkan peninsula.

Serious troubles are reported from the south in the region of Berat, threatening the town of Elbasan. Col. Radja Chali's northern insurgents are attacking Alessio, where, according to the latest advices, the governmental forces are in a critical position.

The Southern rebels, who are marching on Tirana, the capital, have sent an ultimatum to the government demanding its immediate resignation.

Foreign Minister Nishitich of Yugoslavia declares that while this country has firmly upheld the principle of Albanian independence it could not remain indifferent in the event of external intervention.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

(By the Theatre's Own Press Agents)

"THE COVERED WAGON"

All great American dramas of semi-historical origin seem to hit the times just at the right period and an illustration of this can be shown in the phenomenal success of "The Covered Wagon" which comes to the B. P. Keith Theatre for a week's engagement starting Monday, June 5. Tickets went on sale at the theatre box office today.

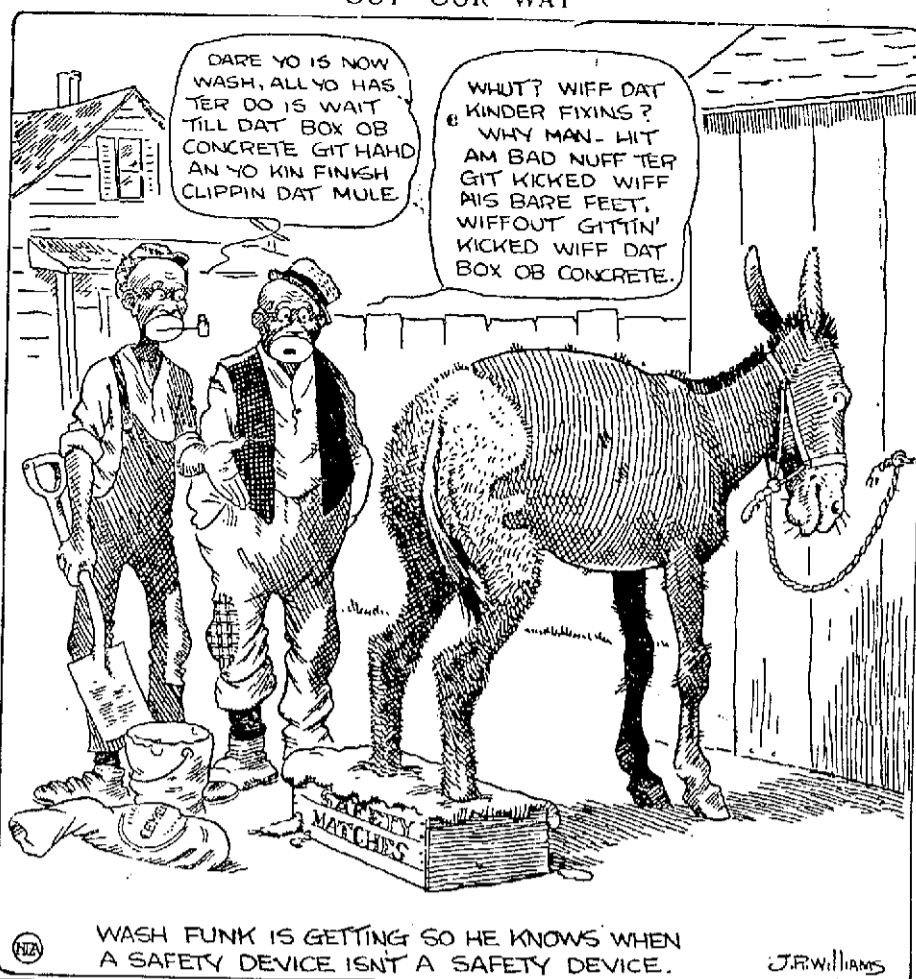

This story is the picture of the great Saturday Evening Post serial of the same title by Emerson Hough which is now in its sixth edition and which was made for Famous Players-Lasky under the able direction of James Cruze.

Emerson Hough as everyone familiar with his work knows was one of the foremost writers of the west and he said just before his death that he had reached the height of his career when he witnessed the screen drama of his greatest endeavor. "The Trail of the Covered Wagon" in this particular is that it made its appearance when the country was saturated with war alarms and the radicalism which came with the war. Contrasted with that the movement of aggression, the story of how these men and women of great courage and high resolution set forth upon their perilous trip of 2000 miles across the uncharted plains and desert in inspiring. In the covered wagons drawn by oxen and reeling off an average of twelve miles a day they laughed and sang, and loved and suffered and fought to build what is now the great western heart of this greatest of all countries. Its appeal is the personal one of courage to do and hearts to serve that an unknown land might be opened up and the rich stream of wealth come pouring forth each year in crops that reach to the ends of the world. There is romance and adventure in every forward move of the winding train as they trek onward and onward toward the end of the trail and the golden west which was no more rainbow or chimera but something that will live forever in our minds and hearts. The production has been successfully presented in all the principal cities of the country and in London and Paris.

THE STRAND

When some one says "The Moulin Rouge" your thoughts instantly revert to the gay and scintillating Parisian cafe, which is dear to all those who would leave dull care behind. It does not seem possible that a lily could bloom in the exotic atmosphere of this restaurant, but Graham Cutter's semi-stirring photodrama, "Woman to Woman," which is to be presented at The Strand for three days beginning with matinee today, proves that nature partly will thrive regardless of its environment. The stellar role in this powerful production is taken by Betty Campbell, who proves once more that she is capable as well as beautiful. As Delorse, the exquisite flower-like little French dancer, she exudes a freshness and child-like charm which is untouched by her sordid surroundings. Then love, enchanting and de-

DRUGGED! INDICAN Shows Why Constipated People Feel That Way

ASK your doctor about INDICAN. He will tell you it is a substance looked for in examining his patients thoroughly. If he finds it in you—it means that the poisons of constipation are seeping through your blood into every muscle and every joint. This is what does the damage. It robs you of your pep—it poisons your optimism and good spirit—it pales your face and puts blotches there—it gives you headaches—causes indigestion. No wonder you feel drugged when constipated.

prescribed by him, or according to directions. Now have another test made and see how the INDICAN disappears. It is sweet, clean, you can eat like a kid again, in most cases.

Important: Carter's Little Liver Pills, used for 67 years by millions of people all over the world, is a purely vegetable preparation and contains no drugs of any nature. It therefore acts in a natural way and is non-habit forming. Money refunded if results are not satisfactory.

vanishing, wings its way into her life. On the eve of their marriage, her fiancé (played by Oliver Brock) is unexpectedly called away. A blow on the head robs him of his memory and he cannot return to the faithful little girl who has sacrificed all for him. Later Fate brings them together and while the man's heart is wrung with remorse he has unwittingly done Delorse by marrying another girl. Delorse's one thought is to protect the future of their son. The ending of this vital problem imparts a rare lustre in a photoplay which has no dull moments in it.

"Fighting Destiny," the pulsating photodrama by Grace Sanderson Mitchell, author of many big successes, will be the second feature. It's a delightful story, convincingly enacted and beautifully screened. Monte Blue and Irene Rich head an exceptionally fine cast whose other members are Tully Marshall, Jackie Saunders, Russell Simpson, James Gordon and others. Together with a good comedy and a weekly issue, as well as musical numbers on The Strand organ, the offering should share well in the bestowal of approbation from the fans.

H. F. KETTER THEATRE
Van Arman's Fashion Plate Minstrels are drawing excellent audiences to the H. F. Ketter theatre, this week. Twice daily the big first part, with the half circle of 30 voices, and the big orchestra, give plenty of good music, and incidentally furnish dancing and plenty of comedy. The olio with the show is exceptionally good, and the dancing of Scott & Keefer, and the personation of Olin Landick are the high spots of it. There is no advance in prices for this big show. "The Hill Billy," which is a Jack Pickford picture, is the added attraction.

MERRIMACK SQUARE THEATRE
Laughfulness that bubbles over with laughter has arrived in town with Harold Lloyd's latest picture, "Pathe-comedy, 'Gilt Sky,' playing all the week at the Merrimack Square theatre. Lloyd has hitherto given to the screen many humorous novelties in his varied characterizations, but in "Gilt Sky" he promises to outdo his previous laugh efforts with a masterful portrayal of a very bashful small town boy, who made a secret study of girls, and the more he studied them, the more he feared them. It is a real novel role, and is full of fun, because Lloyd has by this time achieved a reputation for never disappointing his many followers.

Owing to the demand for seats at performances of "Gilt Sky" so far this week, the management has made arrangements to give four performances daily for the remainder of the week. There is an excellent surrounding program.

RIALTO THEATRE
In the "Tom Mix" reel special, "Soft Boiled," which opens at the Rialto theatre today, the popular western star, famous the world over for his hard-boiled, straight shooting and two-fisted mannerisms, abandons all this for a "horned-rimmed" spectacle, a cheek suit and a job as a shoe clerk, liable to fit a dainty pair of slippers on a shy, silk covered foot. He recollects that he always got a shoe on a horse by hammering it, but his method isn't so good in this case. With his eyes on ankles, and his mind decidedly not on his work, he unconsciously ties the shoe of his cold customer to that of an angular, cold-eyed woman in the adjoining seat. The outcome is neither graceful nor happy for Tom Mix, but it is an intoxicating perfume. That's not so bad, until he discovers that he has an audience consisting of hard-boiled men. But the audience enjoys it. Aching to fight a dozen times, but forced to control his temper or lose an inheritance, he refused to speak to offenders, but hands them notes, begging that they meet him at a stipulated time after he has controlled himself.

This Will Make Digestion Easy

WHAT the dyspeptic needs is not soda and charcoal and breath perfumes but a medicine that will help his bowels to move regularly, for dyspepsia and constipation are allied. If you will take Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin systematically as the directions on the package call for you will soon digest your food properly and pass it out normally, and heartburn, belching, dizziness, nervousness and bloating will vanish. In time you can dispense with all medicines as Syrup Pepsin will have exercised the intestinal and stomach muscles so they act for themselves. Mr. Lewis F. Schultz of Reasnor, Ia., Mrs. Victor Knoder of 3625 Bank St., Louisville, Ky., and hosts of others will verify this.

Formula Plainly Stated
Have no hesitancy giving Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin to any one young or old. It is a mild, gentle laxative free from narcotics. It will not cramp or gripe. The formula is on the package, a compound of Egyptian senna with pepsin and simple aromatics. A bottle can be had at any drug store and averages less than a cent a dose. Economical for families and fully guaranteed. You will find it a great improvement in taste and action over castor oil, or "candy cathartics" made from coal-tar that cause skin diseases, calomel that loosens the teeth, salts in water or other drugs that concentrate the blood and dry the skin.

World Acclaims Success
Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is the prescription of a well known physician of that name who practiced successfully for 47 years. It has been on the market thirty years and is today the largest selling liquid laxative in the world. Thousands of families have it in their medicine chest ready when any members show signs of dyspepsia, constipation, torpid liver, sour stomach, biliousness.

There was a business meeting and dinner in the vestry, young women of the church assisted in serving the viands, which included strawberry shortcake in abundance.

CEMETERY COMMISSION

William H. Rigby Re-elected Chairman—No Action on Wage Increase

The cemetery commission met yesterday, reading the newly appointed member, Maudie MacKinnon, and re-electing William H. Rigby as chairman. Monthly bills amounting to $1267.88 were approved. An attempt to bring down the table the petition for an increase in wages for cemetery workers was lost for want of a second. The board ordered an abandoned check in the rear of the table to be taken down. The chairman reported the action of the commission to approve of closing adjacent land over the city line for cemetery extension purposes, adding a bill is now being prepared for submission to the legislature which it passed will empower the city to make the desired change.

TO OFFER M. HERRIOT THE PREMIERSHIP

PARIS, June 5 (By the Associated Press).—President Millerand is expected today to announce Edouard Herriot, leader for the radical party and outstanding figure in the new majority of the left for the purpose of offering him the premiership, vacated by M. Luchaire.

M. Millerand, in accordance with custom, was to confer on the subject this morning with the presidents of the senate and chamber, but it was a hasty conclusion that they would recommend M. Herriot to him as the one best fitted for the task of forming the new government.

M. Herriot's attitude, however, was in some doubt, in view of the strong sentiment in the ranks of the left against M. Millerand's continuance in the premiership. The radical leader has kept his own counsel, regarding the course he would take, and opinion was divided this morning, but with most of the political experts predicting he would decline the premiership unless M. Millerand in turn gave him a mandate to parliament announce his resignation from the post of chief executive.

8 IN 11 HOUR BILL FOR

CARMEN BEATEN

BOSTON, June 5.—The fight for the 8-in-11 hour bill for street railway employees, which had been vigorously waged for 70 days, came to an end yesterday, when it was voted to refer it to a newly appointed conference committee, where it is expected to die. Not in years has such a battle for legislation been waged. After a series of conferences, substitutions, etc., the carmen scored a sweeping victory in the house, when the original bill was passed by a vote of 137 to 62. It then went back to the senate, with the carmen's action the outcome.

Some time ago the senate substituted for a committee report of "best annual session" the bill cutting the street carmen's hours from nine in 11 to eight in 11. Soon after the senate reversed itself and substituted for this bill a resolve calling for an investigation by the department of public utilities into the desirability of this legislation, whether it would greatly increase the burden on street railway companies, and whether it would result in an increase in fares. Under this resolve, as amended, the department was to report to the next legislature.

Although this resolve passed the senate when it reached the house, it was not reported to the chamber, but it was a hasty conclusion that they would recommend M. Herriot to him as the one best fitted for the task of forming the new government.

M. Herriot's attitude, however, was in some doubt, in view of the strong sentiment in the ranks of the left against M. Millerand's continuance in the premiership. The radical leader has kept his own counsel, regarding the course he would take, and opinion was divided this morning, but with most of the political experts predicting he would decline the premiership unless M. Millerand in turn gave him a mandate to parliament announce his resignation from the post of chief executive.

Senator Charles H. Harrishorn, of Gardner, termed the bill a "vicious proposition" and moved that it be referred to the next annual session. Senator Richard Gilbons, of Lawrence, opposed this motion, and also that for substitution of the resolve which he said had previously been killed by a two to one vote and which he claimed would be killed again. Senator Gilbons pleaded that street railway employees be given the same consideration as other workmen.

"Voting for the resolve is side-stepping the issue," said Senator Walter E. McLane, of Fall River. "And the issue is whether or not the eight-hour day is universal. If it is, then street car employees are entitled to its benefit. Let us senator duck the issue by voting for the resolve."

On a rising vote the bill adopted by the house was killed, and the senate substituted therefor Senator Frothingham's resolve by a vote of 10 to 9. On a roll call vote the resolve was adopted 10 to 13.

When the resolve reached the house, however, this branch refused to concur with the senate, and sent it back to the senate. There Senator Frothingham moved that the senate enter on its action, and asked for a committee on conference.

Senator Halliwell said that he felt the house justified in its action refusing to accept the resolve.

FOR PLACES ON OLYMPIC

SWIMMING TEAM

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 5.—One hundred and twenty-five of the nation's greatest swimmers are entered in the final contests for places on the United States Olympic swimming team to be held here this afternoon. Three events are on the program, the 100 meter freestyle, for men; 1500 meters free style for men and the men's diving contest. Swimmers finishing in the first and second places in the events will be chosen for the team.

Women swimmers who will be selected for the Olympic team will hold their trials in New York later in the week. Among some of the more prominent swimmers entered in the finale here are Johnny Weissmuller, Norman Ross, Duke Kahanamoku, Sam Kahanamoku and Harold "Nobby" Kruger.

"The question should be decided in an out-and-out manner. If it is to be decided, let it be done honorably," he said.

Against the opposition, Senator Frothingham's motion was carried and President Frank G. Allen appointed Senators Frothingham, Albert B. Rice, of Newton, and William A. O'Brien, of North Adams, as the committee on conference. When knowledge of this action reached the house, Speaker B. Loring Young of Weston appointed representatives Samuel H. Wragge, of Northham, Thomas C. Crowder of Fall River and George G. Keenan of Lawrence as the house committee on conference.

In these members, all three representatives are for the bill, and also Senator O'Brien, but since a majority of each committee must agree upon a single measure, the two opposing senators, constituting a majority of their committee, create a deadlock. So that it is highly probable that these two committees on conference will not be able to come together on either bill or the resolve for an investigation and that consequently both will expire.

The reciprocal insurance applicable until yesterday when the house and senate finally put through a resolve for an investigation of the whole matter by a special recess committee of the legislature.

This is a mode of insurance whereby department stores and other large mercantile concerns combine and mutually insure themselves against fire and burglar damage. This particular bill has caused the biggest fight of the year in the history of the legislature.

"DEADLY POWER OF DEATH RAY" FAILS

LOWELL, June 5.—The "deadly power of the death ray" failed to materialize in the recent governmental tests, the house of commons was told last evening by William Leach, under-secretary of the air ministry. During the tests, he said, one of the ministry's experts placed himself in the path of the ray only ten yards distant from the point of emanation. If the invention had been bona fide, the expert must have been blown out, but the under-secretary was pleased to report that he was doing very nicely and when last seen showed no sign of having suffered.

Bridgeport, Connecticut.—"I was completely run-down, had headaches, dizzy, faint feelings and other troubles women often have. As I had taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound before, my husband said to take it again. I have now taken Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Purifier, the Liver Pills, and six boxes of Lydia E. Formal Denial of Sensational Rumors Regarding Internal Situation

BUCHAREST, June 5.—Formal denial of sensational rumors regarding the internal situation in Rumania. It was in a semi-official statement which attributes the dissemination of the stories to persons seeking to affect the stock market.

One of the rumors was that General Averescu, former premier, was marching on Bucharest at the head of 50,000 peasants. It is explained that General Averescu merely presided at the annual congress of his party outside Bucharest, and that the meeting was entirely peaceable.

The semi-official statement also denies "exaggerated reports" concerning the loss of life in the recent aerial explosion near the capital.

Regarding the general situation, it says: "The most serious order prevails throughout Rumania."

"The next selection"
by The Veteran Motorist

IN one way, at least, we motorists have it all over the radio fans. They have to wait for their "next selection"—pluck it out of the air, as it were, and then perhaps not be satisfied.

But all that we motorists have to do is to tell Joe, the garage man, to "fill her up with Socony Motor Oil." And, boy, then tune her up, and listen in to the sweet music of the motor.

After all, any motor car is almost human in its appreciation of the proper lubrication and the proper fuel. It resents poor gasoline, and it hates poor lubrication.

Probably you are using Socony Motor Oil today—I have been using it ever since it first came out—but in case you are not, make it your next selection. It is economical in price. It is sold everywhere; it never fails in the endless task of fighting friction, and prolonging the life of the motor. Don't accept a substitute.

For transmissions and differentials, use Socony Gear Compound or Socony Gear Oil. See the Socony Chart.

ELKS PREPARE TO HIT TRAIL FOR STATE ASSOCIATION MEETING

Pittsfield, in the Heart of Berkshires, Chosen for Annual Convention—Three-Day Program Opens June 15—Scores Going From Lowell

Scores of Lowell Elks, with their wives, sisters, mothers and sweethearts, are busy planning their participation in the annual convention of Massachusetts Elks which will take place June 15, 16, and 17 at Pittsfield. And Pittsfield lodge and the residents of that beautiful city in the heart of the Berkshires are working hard to arrange a royal welcome for the honored herd when it descends upon them.

Joseph F. Francis, Jr., of New Bedford, president of the Massachusetts State Elks' Association, will preside at the convention. He spoke before a recent meeting of Lowell lodge and extended a cordial invitation to all members of the order to attend the big affair. This month's convention will be the ninth annual affair of its nature, the first having been held in Pittsfield in 1915. Last year the convention was held in Greenfield and the feature of this gathering was the dedication of "The Elk on the Trail," a massive monument to memory of Massachusetts Elks who served the colors.

This year the convention proper will be held in the auditorium of the Pittsfield Hotel club on the shore of beautiful Ponawasee lake. The hall is big enough to accommodate all the delegates and visitors, and those who prefer not to sit in the convention hall may sit themselves in comfort on the huge verandas overlooking the lake. After the convention session is over the delegates will be entertained at a clam bake to be held across the lake, transportation being furnished. In the evening will be held the convention ball in the auditorium with a display of fireworks to liven up the proceedings.

A luncheon is to be provided for the ladies, who will also be entertained with automobile rides throughout the country. There will be a ball game between Pittsfield and Springfield of the Eastern league, a parade, and much music by the newly-organized band of the Pittsfield lodge. In operation of the chamber of commerce, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lion clubs has been volunteered, so that, all in all, the ninth convention will be some party.

LAST EVENING'S FIRE ALARMS

A conflagration was visualized in the minds of many last evening when box 512, at Middlesex street and Broadway, was sounded twice within an hour. The first alarm, at 9:25 o'clock, was for fire in a pile of old ties in the street, railway company yard in Middlesex street. The second alarm, almost an hour later, was for a blazing freight car near the John C. Meyer thread mill. The car was empty but was badly damaged before the fire was extinguished.

At 8:25 o'clock last evening a still alarm was sounded for a fire in an automobile in Mammoth road.

Keep your energy and freshness for your children

Washday need not tire you out • RINSO gives you the cleanest wash in the quickest, easiest way • No more hard rubbing

THE end of washday—and yet you feel fresh and vigorous.

Ready for any game active little brains suggest—eager to explore the cunning resources of the new doll house—glad to read over and over the adventures of Mother Goose to tiny listeners.

You have kept your energy because you have been spared the hardest work of washday—the hard constant rubbing.

ONLY a new kind of soap and a really modern soap could do this for you—and this is just what Rinso is—the first laundry soap that meets the needs of the modern housewife.

Everything about Rinso is modern—even its form is new—fine, creamy-white granules that dissolve completely in hot water. You get a rich soapy solution with more cleansing power than bar soap—and so much quicker and easier to use.

Your clothes are spotless, and you have helped prolong its wearing qualities—you have saved time, strength and labor.

Rinso takes the place of any other laundry soaps or soap you may now be using. It is a complete soap in itself—it does the whole wash whatever your washing methods may be. You need no other soap with it.

Use the rich Rinso solution in your tubs, boiler, washing-machine. The water gets soapy right through—an even rich soapiness that goes into every fibre of your clothes and gently soaks dirt out. Even ground-in dirt needs only a light rubbing.

And then the rinsing is so easy and so thorough—no bits of soap left to ruin clothes under the iron—no soil left to make them look dingy—and, of course, no harmful rubbing at any time.

EVERYWHERE the progressive American woman is using this labor-saving soap. Already more than a million packages are used every week.

Rinso is made by the makers of Lux. Everygrocer has it—in regular size and the big new package. Get it today for your next wash. Lever Bros. Co., Cambridge, Mass.

WOMEN'S CLUBS TO THRESH OUT PROBLEMS

BY JACK JUNGMEYER
N.E.A. Service Writer
HOLLYWOOD, June 5.—Sentiment on motion picture censorship among America's influential women will probably be crystallized as a result of the biennial convention of the Federation of Women's Clubs of Los Angeles June 2-12.

Wide difference of opinion is scheduled to be threshed out for recommended action, at the very gates of Hollywood. And whatever view prevails will doubtless find reflection in political action in a number of states.

If this controversy, long an issue among the federated women, is to reach official conclusion, it could seem appropriate that it should be done here at the hub of the industry, where producers are able to present something in the nature of an exhibit to support their side of the argument.

Hollywood has mustered its most persuasive envoys to defend liberal latitude of life accorded increasingly frank presentation in other mediums and social activities.

There will be more or less open house in Hollywood for the visiting delegates, many of whom will thus have the first opportunity to see the inside of a movie plant and to meet prominent screen players, directors and producers.

Quite aside from the merits of censorship, this personal contact with movie folk has in the past proved ardently flattering and mollifying to critics of the screen and apostles of more rigid censorship. It is at any rate calculated to placate the old and to make no new enemies.

The federation has endorsed state censorship in the past, but not federal supervision. At the Hot Springs convention in 1918 there was adopted a resolution, never rescinded, which advocated recommendation to state legislatures of censorship statutes similar to those in Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Kansas to "cope with an evil which was seriously threatening the proper foundation of society."

In 1922 at the Chattanooga convention the plan had been to start an active censorship campaign. It was dropped when Will Hays, representing the producers, assured the women that they had nothing to fear but bigger and better movies.

Now the pros and antis seem again to have reached the point where decisive official action, one way or the other, is imminent.

That at least would insure the women a rural time in Hollywood by the defenders of cinematic freedom.

Everything But Tea Dumped Into Boston Harbor Now

THEY BOUGHT THE WHOLE STATES OF MAINE, NEW HAMPSHIRE, VERMONT, CONNECTICUT, RHODE ISLAND AND MASSACHUSETTS FROM THE INDIANS FOR THREE BOXES OF ANGLE GREASE, A SET OF GOLF STICKS AND A BATH TUB.

BY WILL CHESSEY
BOSTON, Mass., June 4.—Boston, the Hub of the Universe. A hub is part of a wheel. Bostonians all have them.

The first white man to set foot in Boston was a Swedish heavy-weight, Lief Eriksson, in the year 1001. Lief was just sort of shallotheaded around on a summer vacation and did not realize what an opportunity he was missing to establish one of Boston's first families, for unfortunately he left no descendants to speak of.

Two years later his brother came over but he liked it so much less that he went down to Fall River and died there. But it was not until 1566—something or other, that Boston really got a start. Then a lot of disappointed Methodists over in England got sore at the deal they were getting from the R. of C. and the R. of C. and the Quakers and the Shakers, and so they decided to move over to America where they could do others as others had been doing unto them.

So they bought a Dutch excursion boat and as it was November, they loaded it with Ancestors and antique furniture and started over to be Pilgrims and get their names in the papers and sell off the furniture. While the exact dimensions of this ship have been mislaid, statisticians have figured it out, taking for a basis the amount of furniture brought over.

ORGANIZATIONS THAT HAVE NO UNION CARDS SAYS SHE WAS ALWAYS TIRED

Rarely do "inside" news items concerning the activities of railroad men's fraternal or class instruction organizations reach the columns of public prints, yet all over New England today, particularly in districts of the so-called "bar shops" there are railroad men's organizations that have no union cards, no dues, no particular financial expense costs attached. These organizations are today proving highly attractive and profitable in many ways to loyal men on the Boston & Maine railroad, New York, New Haven & Hartford and Maine Central payrolls.

The popular name for some of the railroad men's volunteer meeting organizations, now successfully operating at such important points as Billerica and Nashua, N.H., is "Foreman's Association."

The Sun is informed that meetings are held once a month by these individuals, district-specified-and-managed organizations. They have been in process of operating for many weeks past, as a matter of fact, and have thus far been eminently well attended and highly interesting from many view points to better relationships between corporation and car workers and also serving as instruction institutions of great value.

N. A. Campbell of the New York Air Brake Company, gave an instructive talk on car braking appliances, with special references to maintenance and repairs, at the April meetings of the Concord car shop workers and the Billerica-Terminus Foreman's association, by R. J. Conners and P. A. Tullihill, air brake instructors at the local meeting of the East Portland Springsfield and Mechanville Foreman in the East Portland yard.

There was a good attendance at all three points, including a number of representatives of the Mechanville Employees' association at Billerica, W. O. Forman, assistant mechanical superintendent, was also in attendance at the Billerica-Terminus meetings.

The Concord Foreman's association held an interesting special meeting on May 2, with a lecture by Sup't. G. A. Wyman on "Value Motive."

Arrangements are being made to have the late C. Ketchum, supervisor of signals on the Boston & Maine railroad, give soon at Billerica our shops, his historical lecture, "Development of the Automatic Signal on the Boston & Maine," which has already been delivered in Concord. The lecture there was held at the railroad "Y" auditorium, and a replica, not only of railroad signals, but of controlling mechanical appliances, was shown in connection with the Ketchum lecture.

SENATOR WALSH LIKES HIS FEW EXTRA WINKS

By N.E.A. Service
WASHINGTON, June 3.—An early winker is one of the things that stand for Thomas J. Walsh of Montana is not.
The fact that he must have his forty winks in the morning necessitates his motoring to his daily duties at the capitol. Instead of walking, as would be his natural preference, Walsh drives his own car and parks it outside the senatorial sanctum while he carries on his work. Motoring is a matter of business rather than of pleasure.
You seldom see the senator's face outside the capitol between the hours of nine-thirty in the morning and five in the afternoon.
While other senators are dining at noon, Walsh likely is munching a piece of fruit. What he eats is of little concern, says he.
When the senate adjourns for the day Walsh hops into his car again and drives home. The machine is parked for the day and then he starts on foot, for the famous Rock Creek Park and the Washington zoo.
A two-hour stroll before supper is the usual thing, and often another walk follows in the evening.
Senator Walsh plays golf almost every Sunday. He likes the walking part of it best.

CAN'T BEAT "TIZ" WHEN FEET HURT

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "Tiz" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "Tiz" bath.
When your feet feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "Tiz." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.
There's nothing like "Tiz." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture.
A few cents buy a box of "Tiz" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel.
Adv.
Interferes with the eight hours sleep by insisting upon getting every night. When the senate session is over Walsh will head for Lake McDonald at Glacier National Park, Montana. That's his pet loafing spot.

TO FORM NEW FRENCH CABINET

Pres. Millerand Summons Paul Painleve to Elysee Palace for Consultation

Millerand Determined To Remain in Office Under Any Circumstances

PARIS, June 4.—(By the Associated Press)—President Millerand summoned Paul Painleve, former premier and newly-elected president of the chamber of deputies, to the Elysee palace, today for a consultation in regard to the formation of a new cabinet to succeed the outgoing cabinet headed by Raymond Poincare.

Millerand Refuses to Yield
PARIS, June 4.—(By the Associated Press)—President Millerand made known to his friends today that he was determined to remain in office under any circumstances unless there should be a majority vote in both the senate and chamber of deputies asking him to retire. Furthermore this vote must be in open session with the vote of each senator and deputy recorded.

The president is described by those closest to him as being convinced from his inquiries that the majority of the senate is for him, and will refuse to associate itself with the action of the majority in the chamber.

The president is by nature combative and, although he does not cling to the presidency, has told his friends that he will not retire simply because the majority in one house is opposed to him.

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY AWARDS 3319 DEGREES

NEW YORK, June 4.—Columbia university awarded degrees to 3319 students and honored men distinguished in education, literature, journalism and politics at its 170th commencement today. The graduates exceed by 479 those of last year.

Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, heads the list of recipients of honorary degrees. He received the degree of doctor of laws together with Victor P. Lawson, editor and publisher of the Chicago Daily News; Melville B. Stone, former general manager and now counselor The Associated Press; and Adolph S. Ochs, publisher of the New York Times.

The honorary degree of doctor of letters was conferred upon Booth Tarkington, novelist; Dr. Robert Bridges, editor of Scribner's magazine, now acting as exchange professor at the University of Michigan; James Truslow Adams, historian and author of "Revolutions and New England"; and the Rev. Dr. Herbert Sill, A. B., Columbia, '93, founder and headmaster of Kent school, Kent, Ohio.

Acting as university orator, Prof. Edwin R. A. Seligman, in presenting the honorary degrees, stressed the value of imagination and enthusiasm as the essential ingredients of success at paid tribute to the recipients of the honorary degrees for their "loyalty to the conspicuous ends of social effort and human striving."

President Nicholas Murray Butler discussed character building in his commencement address, laying emphasis on "freedom of choice" as the most needful element in the development of a good character. He attacked the growing tendency to shift the responsibility for character building from the individual to the community, a movement which would complicate mediocrity at the expense of excellence. Real freedom, he said, was the happy medium "between tyranny on one hand and license on the other."

RICKARD CHANGES PLAN

To Promote But One Heavy-weight Battle This Year—Firro's Action the Cause

NEW YORK, June 4.—Tex Rickard announced today he had abandoned plans to promote two big heavy-weight battles this year, and would concentrate his efforts on a single match between Jack Firpo and Harry Wills, or a title contest between Wills and Jack Dempsey.

The promoter had planned to make a Wills-Firpo match an elimination bout for a championship bout around Labor Day, at Boyle's Thirty Acres, but has cancelled this scheme because of Firpo's unwillingness to fight before Aug. 20.

Such a date, he pointed out, would make it impossible to hold a title match early in September, between the winner and Dempsey, while the promoters met to make changes with weather conditions and conflict with other sporting events by arranging for such a bout later than Labor day.

As a result, Rickard declared he would abandon a Dempsey match for this year. If he puts on the Wills-Firpo contest, he added, that would be his last determined fight, in stage. He has signed Wills for both fights and has agreements with Firpo as well as Dempsey's manager, Jack Kearns, who is in New York to close any arrangement the promoter makes.

Kearns declared today he was ready to sign with Rickard for fights with either Firpo or Wills, preferably the negro, and denied that the champion's motion picture engagement would prevent him from defending his title this year. Rickard indicated he would stage a welterweight test he arranges at Boyle's Thirty Acres, about Labor day.

CITY SEALER SPEAKER AT AD CLUB MEETING

Warren F. Riordan, city sealer of weights and measures, was the speaker at yesterday's meeting of the Advertising club and gave an interesting talk on the work of his department.

The meeting was held in Y. M. C. A. hall at noon. Following luncheon, a short business meeting was held with President Thomas R. Atkinson in the chair.

Edwin J. Mellon, Boy Scout executive, presided as a member and asked the club's endorsement of the Flag day celebration sponsored by the Scouts for June 14. This endorsement was voted.

Chairman William Bruce of the outing committee reported progress and Daniel Carroll suggested that summer meetings be held at Allandale in August during the months of July and August.

Mr. Riordan was introduced by Pres. Atkinson and traced the history of weights and measures since their inception. After outlining the history of weights and measures, Mr. Riordan told of the work of his department.

"The department," he said, "is the only department in the city not governed by city ordinance. It comes under state jurisdiction." The present method of charging a fee for sealing weights and measures was attacked by Mr. Riordan. "It is not fair," he said, "for it benefits everyone and should not be paid for by a few who more than make up their loss should have to pay the total cost of fire protection."

Mr. Riordan briefly summarized his department's work in protecting the public from inaccurate weights and measures and also explained several duties not generally known, namely, the enforcement of the "huckster" and "peddlers" law and the "mercantile peddlers" law.

SEC. WILBUR SPEAKS

Addresses Graduating Class at Naval Academy on "Real Leadership"

ANNAPOLIS, Md., June 4.—Leadership not dependent upon gold, silver or gold lace, or commissions written upon parchment, but upon the personal attributes of officers, was urged today by Secretary Wilbur of the navy in his address to the graduating class at the naval academy.

"Real leadership is based upon respect for the leader," the secretary said, "and such leadership can only be achieved by possession of powers worthy of respect. Professional ability and accomplishments are the best foundation for permanent leadership, but there is an altogether different basis of leadership which places its source in the heart rather than in the head."

The secretary pointed out to the young officers that to them was to be committed in some part the destinies of the 55,000 enlisted men of the navy.

"Unless your rule over them be tempered by fairness, justice, sympathy and courtesy," he said, "their services in many cases may be lost to the navy. Remember especially that success or biting criticism at the expense of a subordinate, especially if he is an enlisted man and thus incapable of retaliation, is unmanly and fatal to one's standing as an officer."

RAID LINER AT BOSTON

He coached the local high school a few years ago and was very successful.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 11

The clown knew that Flip belonged to Jack, so he ran right up to the little adventurer. "Pull him off! Pull him off!" shouted the clown. Jack tried to grab hold of Flip but the dog switched around and Jack went sprawling, head over heels. This brought a great laugh from the crowd.

Finally Boscoe reached out his long trunk and seized Flip. The dog was startled and let go of the clown's coat. Then the clown made a hurried retreat and Boscoe let Flip go. Instantly the dog was after the fleeing clown again. But this time Jack succeeded in grabbing hold of Flip.

A circus attendant then offered to chain Flip so the circus could go on. Flip whined at this and Jack promised that his dog would be down and let the clowns alone. Then he patted his dog's head and whispered in his ear. Flip immediately sprawled out in a pile of straw. (Continued.)

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

HIS WIFE MET HIM AT THE DOOR

"I don't care whether it's honest or not," declared Mister Crow, "but just as soon as Farmer Jones corn is up, I'm going to take my wife and children to the cornfield and eat all the nice juicy young cobs of corn I can hold. And I'm going to tell them to eat all they can hold, too. So now there!"

"Shame on you, Mister Crow," said Mister Bags, the fairy storekeeper. "Why, pecking at the corn like you do, there wouldn't be any corn left to grow up at all. And there wouldn't be any nice roasting ears next fall for the children to eat. And worst of all, there wouldn't be any corn to get dry and store away, so that the horses and cows and chickens and pigs and turkeys won't starve to death next winter."

"Humph! What do I care?" cried Mister Crow. "You sound exactly like a lecture, Mister Bags, and I don't like lectures. And the cows and chickens may as well starve as me."

"But you won't starve. There are lots and lots of things for you to eat, Mister Crow," said Nancy.

"You sound just like a lecture, too," declared the big black bird. "And I didn't come in to be lectured. I came in to find out if Farmer Jones had bought his seed corn yet for planting."

"Yes, he has," snapped Mister Bags. "And if you take any of it, I hope the scarecrow gets after you."

"Ha, ha, ha!" laughed Mister Crow, now in a very good humor because he'd found out what he came for. "The scarecrow isn't anything but some old sticks dressed up and that old gun he carries isn't worth a bean shooter. It's only a stick, too. I'm a wise old crow, I am. You can't fool me. Ha, ha, ha!"

And he stumbled out of the door.

still crying ha, ha, ha (which sounded like caw, caw, caw) and nearly knocked over Cutie Cottontail who had come in to buy a bag of candy.

"Oh, get out of my way," exclaimed Mister Crow, shoving him rudely. "Where are your manners?"

You can't blame Cutie for making a face at him behind his back, for the bad manners were all Mister Crow's—nobody else's in the world.

More good news awaited Mister Crow upon his arrival home. His wife met him at the door with the words, "What do you think, Christopher? Today as I was sitting on the fence beside the corn field, I thought I saw something green sticking up out of the mud. So I flew down and looked it—and what do you suppose it was? Corn! It's starting to sprout all over the field. By tomorrow it will be up as plain as day and we can take the children and have a picnic. I ate quite a few grains which came up easily, and they were the most delicious things I ever put into my mouth."

"Hoarse!" cried Mister Crow, flapping his black wings and grinning until he nearly put his back out of joint. "I'm going over this minute! It's not dark yet, and maybe I can get a bite or two, I'm nearly starved!"

Away he flew.

PRETTY JUNE WEDDINGS

Miss Florence Louise Gilbride
Weds Peabody Man—
Other Weddings

One of the most elaborate weddings locally was solemnized at 5 o'clock last evening at St. Margaret's church, when Miss Florence Louise Gilbride, elder daughter of Mrs. Rose and the late Patrick Gilbride, and Mr. John Joseph Ryan, shoe manufacturer of Peabody, were united in the bonds of matrimony by Rev. Charles J. Galligan, pastor of St. Margaret's. As the bride party entered the church, Louis Napoleon Guilbeault, organist of the church, played the Lohengrin wedding march. During the ceremony, Miss Katherine V. Hennessy, vocalist, sang "Ave Maria." The altar was beautifully decorated with palms and cut flowers, and illuminated by innumerable candles. Miss Helen Rose Gilbride, sister of the bride, and Mr. Harold Dalton, of Portsmouth, N. H., cousin of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaids. Little Miss Mildred Clare Hickley, acted as flower girl.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white hand-painted satin over georgette, with train. The gown was painted by Rev. Sr. Florence Louise, S.N.D., of Trinity College, Washington, an aunt of the bride, who also painted her mother's wedding gown. The bride also wore a veil, held in place by a crown of lilies of the valley and pearls. She carried a handsome bouquet of lilies of the valley and orchids. The bridesmaid wore a beautiful gown of pink crepe with overdrapes of lace. She carried pink roses. The flower girl wore a pale green crepe and lace and carried a basket of roses.

Following the ceremony the bride party returned to the home of the bride's mother, 55 S. Main street, where luncheon was served. The immediate party on the large and spacious lawn surrounding the house. A reception followed the luncheon. The rooms of the house were prettily arranged

UNOFFICIAL STRIKE OF SHOPMEN IN LONDON

LONDON, June 5.—An unofficial strike broke out today among the shopmen at the London Electric Railway workshops and power stations and on the Great Western Railway. The men demand 10 shillings increase in their weekly wage with a minimum of 13, the inclusion of 16 shillings 6 pence war bonus in their present wage, and one week's holiday yearly on full pay. The suddenness of the strike, which became effective at midnight, caused considerable inconvenience to thousands of workers using the stations in the north of London, affected by the strike, and this inconvenience spread later in the morning to the underground system where only a skeleton service was being maintained, this forenoon. Forty tube stations were closed because many of the employees at the big Chelsea power station ceased work in sympathy with the strikers.

THE IDA M. BROWN HOME AND GARAGE AND OVER ONE-HALF ACRE OF LAND DIRECTLY ON THE CORNER OF LEE AND CHANDLER STREETS AT CHANDLER'S CORNER IN TEWKSBURY CENTRE. IT HEREBY PLEDGED TO THE HIGHEST BONA FIDE BIDDERS AT ABSOLUTE AND UNRESTRICTED PUBLIC AUCTION ON NEXT SATURDAY, JUNE 7, 1924, AT 2:30 O'CLOCK P. M. The house is of the full two-story type of six sunny rooms, with modern open plumbing, bath, hot and cold water, range, heat, hardwood floors, etc. The first floor has reception hall, parlor, dining room, kitchen, pantry and back hall. On the second floor are three bright and airy chambers and late type bath room; there is a large open attic on the floor above. The house is of most pleasing design, is of high grade construction, has plentiful supply of electricity and maintenance; it is supplied with its own water system from a driven well by an E. T. Meyer & Bro. gas engine, very recently installed, has a large open veranda on the front; is sewered to a dry well, and is prettily surrounded with various kinds of shrubs and trees. The garage is of the single car size. The lot has a most extensive frontage on Lee street, thus giving to the property much added value from the standpoint of development, and more particularly as the location is essentially one of homes, also with its large area, affords an opportunity for gardening. The location is superb, the premises are within a short ride of the electric cars, on the main state boulevard from Lowell to Boston, also within easy and comfortable walking distance of the town hall, postoffice, school and common. The offering of this splendid home at public sale is exceptional, particularly as the premises are situated in a desirable and more especially attractive village property. In buying a home in such a suburb as Tewksbury, and especially in its most accessible spot, you are insured against possible depreciation, as the energies of the whole town are devoted to a single purpose. It is to make Tewksbury a better, more attractive, and a more desirable suburb. Terms: $500 must be paid in cash or secured with the auctioneer just as soon as the property is struck off. Other terms at sale.
By order of IDA M. BROWN.
Immediately after the sale of the real estate, we will sell the highest bidder certain household furniture, consisting in part, of: Wardrobe, chairs, Crawford range, combination gas and coal; carpets, beds and bedding, Tron Stacking Knitter, complete; and numerous other pieces of personal property. MACADAMIZING ROAD IN WEST BILLERICA

Billerica town officials are endeavoring to have the macadamizing job on Nashua road in West Billerica completed this year. If funds can be secured to finish the work contemplated. Experts' opinions differ as to what it would cost. Former Highway Surveyor John W. Roswick, Assistant Engineer of the state highway department, and Edgar P. Sellow were present at a meeting of the selectmen held yesterday afternoon in town hall, the conference covering all features of the road proposition. The selectmen decided to present the matter to the finance committee.

It may cost $10,000 or more to complete the macadamizing of Nashua road—a balance of about $5000 had been laid out in 1923. The sum of $30,000 has already been spent by the town, county and state on macadamizing.

Engineer P. D. Sabu of the department of public works was present at the selectmen's meeting and told the officials that he considered the cost of the final stretch of roadway would be too high to come under the estimation named—$10,000. Grading was easily, he said, and on that construction problem alone, an estimate in cost could be made in advance.

MOSCOW, June 5.—A dispatch from Ureka to the Rosta News Agency, says the popular government party has decided to introduce a republican regime in Mongolia, and that the grand council of Mongolia will doubtless accept the decision.

PETITIONS FOR $10,000 A YEAR ALLOWANCE
NEW YORK, June 5.—John R. Halley has been appointed referee by Supreme Court Justice Tierney, to determine whether Ruth E. Taylor, of Pasco, Wash., shall receive $10,000 a year from the $10,000,000 estate of Mrs. Henry M. Flagler, aunt of her deceased father.

Miss Taylor's petition for the allowance stated an income of that amount from the estate was her father's sole support, and that she is deprived of a livelihood since his death, although the annual income of the estate has been in excess of $375,000 for the past five years.
